Little Green Parks May Sprout to Brighten Princeton Landscape

A neighborhood park. Where a couple of boys can swing an idle bat on a summer morning, a chatter of mothers can meet in the shade of a tree while their toddlers play nearby, or an elderly citizen can nod a game of checkers with a crony on a warm afternoon.

Princeton isn't exactly rich in these little vest pockets of tranquility. But more of them may — just possibly may — be on the way. On the Fourth of July, the Township's Conservation Commission plans solemn dedication ceremonies, maybe with lemonade and cookies and balloons, for the new Caldwell Park in the Shadybrook area.

In the Borough, there's a strip of land on John Street between Leigh and Birch, identified by the name "Bovino" because of the owner. Bovino's Market used to be on the Leigh and John corner, and there's a house on Leigh and vacant land on John behind the store.

Mrs. S. B. Penick, a member of the Conservation Commission, has talked with neighbors about a little vest-pocket park on that spot: if house and store were torn down, the area could be, she thinks, an oasis big enough to embrace play area for the toddlers, shade for watchful mothers and a pinochle table for grandpa.

But not every neighbor is as warm about the project as Mrs. Penick. About half the people she interviewed liked the idea, she reports; three-fourths of them wanted very much to have some kind of neighborhood spot for very small children, and one-quarter pointed out that grandparents have no place to play, either, especially pinochle in the summertime.

Security is a problem. Neighbors of the proposed little park are adamant about having it fenced and locked and patrolled.

And lack of housing is another kind of problem. Why, many people ask, use valuable Princeton land for a park when people are desperate for housing? Even such a bit of land as the Bovino property could house a few . . .

Another possible park spot is in the Borough. That's the filled-in quarry between Spruce Street and Harrison. In May of last year, Borough Council removed that piece of land from the map as park-land. Last December, by an 8-2 vote, the Princeton Regional Planning Board asked Council to put it back again, but so far, Council hasn't done so.

The quarry acreage adjoins the Lloyd Terrace housing for the elderly, and provides not only a natural sunning spot for grandparents, but also an intriguing site which could be developed in a very interesting fashion because of its rockiness and unusual contours.

Martin P. Lombardo, Borough Councilman, is interested in this spot as a park (Mr. Lombardo is liaison between Council and the Township's Conservation Commission), and some neighbors of the old quarry have begun to stir about to see whether they can push Council toward a quarry park.

The question here, of course, is expense. Council has been reluc-

CRIME ALARMING

Teacher Makes Charge. Crime is "out of control" in Princeton's schools, declared Lawrence Ivan flatly at Tuesday night's school board agenda meeting. (The board's June meeting will be held next Tuesday, June 15, at 8 p.m. in Community Park School.)

Mr. Ivan, a member of the Princeton High School athletic department, spoke heatedly of thefts, assaults and vandalism and charged the school board with having "no policy" concerning breaking and entering, setting false fire alarms, and assaulting of both teachers and students.

He said teachers and other staff members had lost $8,000 worth of personal property through theft and said that the school system itself had suffered almost $30,000 lost in stolen property.

Film projectors, musical instruments, a pair of 16 mm projectors, and microphones were among the stolen articles listed by Mr. Ivan.

He told the board he had asked the state attorney general's office for the law on false fire alarms, and had been told the offender is regarded as a disorderly person liable to a $500 fine. If the offender is under 16, the law sends the offender to juvenile authorities, Mr. Ivan said.

Girl Assaulted. Early this year, he charged, three boys in John Witherspoon school assaulted a girl and nothing was ever done, although the girl registered a complaint. He said a J.W. student who stole $1,500 worth of audio-visual equipment was caught and half the equipment recovered, but nothing was done.

When he told 50 teachers teachers recently that he planned to make these public statements to the board, he said that 46 of the 50 told him the board wouldn't act.

Mr. Ivan said principals in various schools were not at fault because they have no leg to stand on in the absence of board policy."

"If kids know there will be no reprisal, they'll go right ahead," he said.

Board member William Marvel asked whether schools kept any log of misdemeanors. Thornton Grove, Middle School principal, replied that students filled out forms reporting thefts, and that these forms were filed.

C. George Fitzgerald of the board, observed that no special board policy ought to be required since "stealing already against the law and the principals in the schools have every right to act."

Superintendent Philip E. McPherson observed that evidence is hard to obtain against specific malefactors. "I'm 98% certain who set fires at the high school, but I have no proof," he said.

Mrs. Alfred G. Green, 56 Herrontown Circle, read a letter to the board protesting restructuring of the high school's guidance department.

Mrs. Green mentioned in particular what she said was a new proposal to have teachers in the high school do the guidance counselling. Will teachers do less teaching if they also have to fit guidance into their schedules," she asked, "and how comfortable will students feel about sharing personal anxieties with teachers who are evaluators of performance?"

She said the high school guidance department has only eight members, and has been denied more because of lack of funds. Special Services, on the other hand, has added 10 members in two years and now has 60 on the staff, she charged.

In her letter, signed also by Mrs. John P. McLusky, 89 Meadowbrook Drive, Mrs. Green asked whether Superintendent Philip E. McPherson, Special Services Director Charles Huchet and Co-ordinator of Staff Development Constance Vieland, "are privy to confidential discussions and information?" since, she said, the three attend executive sessions of the school board.

Board president Robert Bierman and other board members, did not respond in public to her letter.

Following the meeting, Dr. Bierman said that next week the board may pass a resolution concerning administrative re-organization for the whole school system. He said it was too soon to state just what the resolution would say.

Next week, at its June meeting, the board will talk about the grading policy at the Middle School and elementary schools.

Dr. Frank Soda, dean of the faculty at the high school, said two language teachers have received grants for study abroad this summer. Dr. Victoria Ellis who teaches German, will attend a Summer Seminar in Germany, and John Mazzotta of the Italian department, will study in Rome for six weeks.

CONTRACT APPROVED

For Princeton Teachers. The Princeton Regional School Board unanimously approved a new teachers' contract Tuesday night by a 7-0 vote. Members Evelyn Geddes and Kathleen Edwards were absent when the vote was taken.

There are 339 teachers and others in non-classroom situations covered by the new contract: 285 are members of PREA. The $3,960,000 salary bill for 1971-72 includes an average raise of $959. The average teacher's salary will be $11,679 for the 10 months school year, an increase of 8.9%.

No raise is less than 7%, and the range goes up to 14.2%, which about five individuals will receive. The total cost of the raises is $315,000.

In terms of health insurance, the Board of Education will not pay the entire premium. Individuals who retire are eligible to keep the insurance if they pay the premium.

The in-school work day throughout the school system continues at 4½ hours of teaching (which does not include the homeroom period) and daily class preparation time of 40 minutes for elementary school teachers and one period for middle and high school teachers.

No Change. There is no change in the compensation for the 103 extra-curricular activities which teachers may volunteer to lead. These range from coaching sports to acting as advisors to the school publications, drama groups, student council and music activities.

On the whole, the PREA agreement is for two years, with the exception of the articles concerned with salaries, extra pay, sabbaticals, insurance, sick leave, and project planning, which will be up for review at the end of one year.

Procedures covering dismissal, teacher grievances and the handling of a complaint from the community are spelled out in detail. The PREA may even press as grievance through all levels to hearings before an arbitrator from the American Arbitration Association, though the aggrived may not wish to do so. The main purpose, however, is to work out problems at an early level on a prompt schedule.

An innovation is the structure for in-service programs to assist non-tenure teachers. There will be a two-hour learning session after school hours each week for inexperienced teachers. The newcomers will be asked to identify experienced staff members who would be particularly useful to them and the latter will receive extra pay. The school superintendent will work with the staff in planning the extra time sessions.

Cooperation Pledged. The board and teachers have committed themselves to work together on "governance, organization planning, differential staffing (different pay for different responsibilities); and salary structures" during the tant to spend money to buy the land.

Land cost wasn't a factor in the Township's Caldwell Park because the Shady Brook developer was required by the municipality to donate the acreage before he could get approval for his project.

Land cost may not be a factor if all goes well in the newest parkland project. That's the so-called Houghton tract — six acres of Township flood-plain between the canal and Stony Brook, near Alexander Street.

Township Committee decided just a year ago to try and acquire that land, maybe without any cash outlay at all, the state and Federal governments dividing the cost half-and-half.

Federal Funds? Mrs. Penick looks beyond getting the land free, and thinks maybe the Township can get even more Federal money from the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation to develop the plot.

The Houghton land could be developed for all ages and tastes, Mrs. Penick believes. She regards it as a prime spot for family picnics, with permanent tables and grills for cook-outs. Trees could be planted around each table area — a slight problem because the ground is mostly sterile fill — and a small parking lot laid out.

If trees were judiciously cut back, she thinks picnickers would have a view of the canal on one side and Stony Brook on the other. Grandmothers could sit at the permanent tables cutting up tomatoes for salad keeping an eye on the toddlers, while parents go off to another area for a ball-game with the older children.

Marquand Park, Mrs. Penick points out, is immensely popular and heavily used for just this kind of family activity; in fact, she regards Marquand as very nearly perfect as a park because it has plenty of spacious room for all ages and activities.

For Neighborhood Use. This particular member of the Conservation Commission likes multi-purpose neighborhood parks. She would like to see the borders of Community Park developed for neighborhood use, particularly for people who live nearby, on Birch and Leigh and John.

Edges of Community Park at the western tip of the present parking lot near the ballfields, could be planted to shade trees and set about with permanent tables for checkers and socializing. (Mrs. Penick thinks lots of older people would like to watch those ball games if only they had a seat.)

Also, the Community Park School grounds themselves have potential for neighborhood park use, Mrs. Penick believes. At present, there is no playground equipment for toddlers — only for older children. But many toddlers live nearby, and it would be pleasant for mothers to stroll a block or two to Community Park School with young children.

Every Princeton school, she thinks, could better utilize its playgrounds and equipment so that all age groups in the neighborhood could, so to speak, play.

A survey may be made in the near future, Princeton being Princeton. One official has suggested to Mrs. Penick that the Conservation Commission simply identify a certain area as a part of town that needs a park — then wait for residents to get up and push for one.

Think small, the lady suggests with a smile. She thinks people tend to think too big: "A park doesn't have to serve 400," she says, "just tuck something into a little green corner."

coming school year. Staff workshops are projected for this summer, with reports due to all parties in September.

The PREA and the Board will work on a comprehensive plan for administering the schools, with particular attention to programs and setting budget priorities.

Also, a comprehensive plan for staff development will be formed, with emphasis on retaliationship to a new approach to school organization, salary patterns and "different pay for different jobs."

The hiring practices have been liberalized somewhat to reflect experience levels more clearly. And the children of high school teachers are now included in the tuition-free arrangement for children of teachers who live outside the district.

DEMOCRATS DIVIDE

In Borough Committee Races. Princeton Democratic Association candidates won two of the three Borough contests for County Committee posts in Tuesday's primaries. Voting here and throughout the county was at a record low; in Princeton Township, less than 8% of the electorate went to the polls.

In the Borough's District Three, the victors were Barbara McManimon and Sam G. Davison with 93 and 99 votes respectively. Incumbent Ethel Pankove and Murray Medvin were losers with 85 and 88.

In District Four, PDA winners were incumbent Marie Coan with 133 and August J. Pierre with 123. Their challengers from the Princeton Community Democratic Organization were John M. Fenton and Nancy Browder with 66 and 60.

In District 2, PCDO candidates won the posts. They are Fred Bohen and Jan Schneier with 75 each. They defeated Raymond J. Rodweller and Carmela Hardy, each with 20.

William R. White, Republican Township Committee candidate who died of a heart attack Monday (see page 16), received 254 votes Tuesday. He was unopposed, as was Mrs. Barbara Smoyer, who polled 270.

Mayor James A. Floyd totaled 222 votes and Committeeman Thomas Hartmann, 225. They are the Democratic incumbents.

A Whale of a Fete Will Put It All Together This Saturday

Princeton's greatest volunteer effort, run on a scale fast approaching a World's Fair, will hold forth all day Saturday and is expected to attract upwards of 20,000 people from Central New Jersey.

"A Whale of a Fete," the 18th annual affair sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Princeton Hospital, is set to go from 9 to 6 at its University Field location on Washington Road, bringing to fruition countless hours of volunteer work that began around the end of the football season last fall. It's a Fete that can justifiably guarantee "something for everyone."

Beginning right at 9 a.m., the auction, one of the oldest attractions, will provide bargain hunters with plenty of opportunities. It's all there, many items in excellent condition, including furniture, furnishings, a collection of wedgwood, 1920's Lionel train set, English toy soldier set, fur coats, appliances, pottery, Chinese wall hanging, pianos, organs and a 35-foot pin oak tree.

The auction tent may be visited this Friday, and sealed bids will be accepted from noon to 6 p.m. Three secret auction items of unusual interest will be announced Saturday.

Lane of Shops. Featuring the handiwork of many Princeton women as well as donations from area stores, the Lane of Shops will offer a wide range of interesting items.

The Art Gallery will have a special emphasis on crafts as well as paintings and graphics. The committee has scoured the entire hospital sending district (which includes parts of three counties) for woven hangings, pottery and other crafts to be priced from 50c to $50.

A NEW ATTRACTION: Right out of the Old West comes this Stagecoach which will be at the Hospital Fete this year providing rides for children.

The Apron Bar, in its 18th year at the Fete, will have more than 200 all-type aprons to suit every choice. Sponsored by the Friendship Club of Princeton, the Apron Bar should be visited early because of its popularity.

"One-of-a-kind" items will be on sale at the Boutique. Canvas bags, quilted calico cinch belts, decorated goldfish bowls, tie dyed materials, crewel embroidered jeans, and long skirts.

The Carousel returns again this year with delightful toys from Stuff 'N Nonsense and Creative Playthings and the famous dressed mice. This booth is geared to children and grandmothers. With the help of individual donors and area shops, the Fabric Booth will have a great array of materials, trimmings, and interesting sewing articles.

The Flea Market, sponsored by the Hospital Aid Committee, will have hundreds of white elephant items, jewelry, Bric-a-Brac, copper, brass, silver, and kitchen objects.

Cook's Tour. A new entry to the Fete world will be the Cook's Tour, a collection of relishes, sauces, jellies and other unrefrigerated foods. There will also be puppet pot holders, Irish coffee glasses, designed paper plates, herb boxes and other unusual kitchen accessories. Also on sale will be the Princeton Hospital Area Cook Book, prepared by the committee from recipes mailed in by cooks in the entire hospital area.

Second Time Around, a favorite of men at the Fete, also returns. The bargains are many from old comfortable jackets to slightly used evening wear for both men and women. Furs, hats, beachwear, more jewelry and equipment for sports, hobbies, camping and the bar will also be purchased.

Mrs. W. P. Howe III and Mrs. M. R. Dorman, co-chairman of the Hanging Basket, will have several varieties of plants, plus garden tools, a vial of 50 Ladybugs from California for garden pest control.

Travel To and From the Fete

Since the great majority of people who are planning to visit the Fete will arrive by car, one of the most important jobs on Saturday will be to maintain a steady flow of traffic both in and out of the huge parking lot on Washington Road.

New Jersey State and West Windsor Township Police supplemented by several volunteers in the parking lots will be working to assure visitors as little delay as possible. The only entrance to the lot will be off Washington Road, and drivers will then follow directions of the traffic controllers to a parking spot.

Cars leaving the Fete grounds will exit either on Washington Road or Harrison Street. Only delivery and utility vehicles will be allowed to enter from Harrison.

Those attending the Fete are urged to form car pools with friends wherever feasible to cut down on the number of cars. Last year about 2 p.m., the parking area was totally filled for approximately 15 minutes.

Free bus service run by personnel of the Princeton Post Office will again operate between Palmer Square and the Fete grounds.

the ecological way, and a mul ti media pink "whale of a fountain." William Shellman will create a vest pocket park and in the afternoon Mrs. Ro bert Fitzpatrack, a profession al flower arranger will cre ate "on the spot" floral ar rangements in three minutes.

While you're touring these tents, your children will be able to exhaust themselves on numerous games and rides. Two new rides, the Stage Coach and the Circus Train, have been added, plus n e w games Puck Luck and the Hot Wheels Grand Prix, where children can race their cars or Fete cars. Added to that is every game from archery to the weight guess, with some 25 activities in between, in cluding the popular china smash and girl dunk.

The Sound of Rock. Teenag ers, who have jammed the Rock Marathon Tent in past years will find no contest this year, but plenty of rock music nonetheless. There will be two bands from out of town and one local group providing shows at the "Rock Reclama tion."

From Boston is "Guns and Butter" a rock group which has performed in several clubs in that city. "Bean," a New York city group and "Peyote Outlook," complete the pro gram. Performances will be gin about 11:30, with shows periodically throughout the af ternoon.

Food and beverage stands will be plentiful dispensing a variety of items that boggles the stomach. Fete visitors can sample the usual hot dogs, hamburgers, barbecued chick en, and sandwiches, side or ders of rolls, popcorn, potato chips, salad and hoagies, and finish with cotton candy, strawberry shortcake, fudge, donuts, lemon sticks, sno cones, ice cream and fanta and assorted soft drinks.

To make sure you dnn't go hungry that night in your ex hausted state, a battery of Princeton homemakers num bering over 1,000 has been pre paring frozen casseroles, cook ies, cakes, pies, and fancy hors d'oeuvres to take home.

It will all be there on Satur day after months of planning and attention to the smallest detail that has everything tak en care of, except the weath er. And if there was a way to plan a sunny day, that's the first thing Fete co chairman Mrs. Stuart V Willson and Mrs. L. M. Lesher would have done

1,389 RECEIVE DEGREES At Princeton Commencement. The 224th commence ment exercises of Princeton University, held on the sum mering front campus Tuesday morning, were marked by the award of 1,389 bachelor and advanced degrees.

At the same time, a woman in the field of arts and four men in education were recip ients of honorary degrees. Among them were Derek C Bok, President elect of Har vard, and a Princeton gradu ate of the Class of 1946, John G. Kemeny, who is now presi dent of Dartmouth College.

The degrees conferred in cluded 674 bachelor of arts, 111 bachelors of science in en gineering, 228 masters of arts, 36 masters of science in engi neering, 25 masters of fine arts, 31 masters of architec ture, 3 masters of architecture and urban planning, 40 mast ers in public affairs, 5 masters in public affairs and urban planning, and 256 doctors of philosophy. Thirty seven wom en are among the recipients of bachelors of arts.

The commencement marked the retirement from the Board of Trustees of Princeton's sen ior Trustee, Harold H. Helm, Class of 1920, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Chemical Bank, New York City. Hailed by associates to day as "one of the architects of modern Princeton," Mr. Helm, a resident of Montclair, was largely responsible for in augurating Princeton's Annual Giving Programs in 1940. A Charter Trustee since 1947, he has served continuously on the Executive and Finance Com mittees, having been chairman of both.

Dean Curtis Bok, who on Ju ly 1 will become the 25th pres ident of Harvard, was the re cipient of an honorary Doctor of Laws degree. He has been a member of the Harvard Law School faculty for the past dec ade, serving as dean since 1968.

Dartmouth President Keme ny, that college's 13th presi dent, was also honored as a Doctor of Laws. Following his graduation here a quarter cen tury ago, he earned his Ph.D. at Princeton in 1949.

Nancy Hanks, chairman of the National Council on the Arts and National Endowment for the Arts, received the de gree of Doctor of Humane Let ters. Kenneth B. Clark, Pro fessor of Psychology at the City University of New York, was honored as a Doctor of Science, while C. Vann Wood ward, Professor of History at Yale, was cited as a Doctor of Letters.

POLICE STOP DRUG FLOW With Arrest of Student. An illicit drug traffic, which alleg edly netted its operator some $2500 since the first of the year, was halted last week by Borough police with the arrest of a Princeton University stu dent.

Arrested in his room in a raid conducted Thursday morning was Thomas P. Ed walds, 18, of 218 Lourie-Love Hall. Edwalds, a resident of Oak Park, Ill., was released in $5,000 bail the following day to await a preliminary hear ing before Borough Judge The odore T Tams Jr.

He has been charged with three counts of possession of narcotic and dangerous drugs and with two of sale of nar cotics. The raid, the culmina tion of a two month investiga tion, was conducted by Lt. Michael Carnevale, Det. Timo thy Huizing and Det. Thomas Procaccino. Chief Peter J. Mc Crohan reported that the evi dence compiled by his depart ment would be turned over to the Mercer County Prosecu tor's Office.

Chief McCrohan described the amount of drugs that Ed walds had in his possession and had sold as "sizeable." Among them: hashish, mari juana, mescaline, and an espe cially large supply, police said, of LSD. Included in the latter were "Orange Sunshine," a re

Peering through

I watch my grass grow
In the rain.

There's been enough pre cipitation this spring so that the grass — and virtually everything else that's color ful — is as strong and healthy as it's been in years.

The first taste of summer heat has come and gone — after temperatures in the low 90's — and pleasantly less humid weather has replaced it. Scattered showers are a Friday possibility, the Man reports, but like the rest of us, he's hoping for a clear, dry weekend. It has, after all, been about six weeks since no rain has fallen on either Saturday or Sunday.

P-RADE! The traditional march of Princeton's alumni pranced along last Saturday under nice warm sunshine and dappled shade. The young lady (top left) found daddy's shoulders a lot better than walking; that's the Class of '15 Model T Ford, which has been in every P-Rade since — well, maybe since 1915, who knows? The voluptuous ballet dancer had a beard as well as plenty of curves. The traditional p-rade was led by J. Lionberger Davis of the Class of 1900, who graduated six years before the event was first held. In 1906, returning alumni were organized for a parade to help increase attendance at the Yale-Princeton baseball game. That event, however, is now a part of the past with the earlier end of the spring athletic season.

ported high grade of LSD which sells for $2 a pill.

Chief McCrohan announced that the police investigation of alleged drug activity on the campus was continuing. "With the University closing," he said, "we had to move."

Edwalds, he said, was selling to town youths, students— "anybody he could." In January, he continued, police knew there was a source of illicit drug activity on the campus "but we couldn't find out where it was coming from. We had an idea, though, because of all the people going there."

"Very Foxy." "Our men did an excellent job," Chief McCrohan added. "This guy was very foxy but he got careless. Det. Hunzing and Lt. Carnevale spent a lot of time on the case. It cost us a lot of money to get the necessary evidence."

Chief McCrohan reported that University security officers were not notified until the morning of the raid. The three who conducted the raid were armed with a search warrant signed by Judge Tams.

STATE WANTS WELLER

Enough Money? A grant of $48,000 from the National Park Service is at least something toward state purchase of the 12-acre Weller Tract next to Princeton Battlefield Park, where the Institute for Advanced Study would like to build ten faculty houses.

The state has received the grant, says the office of Rep. Frank Thompson. However, the land is priced at about $150,000, and the $48,000 is only part of the $75,000 in matching funds which the state hoped it would get.

The Princeton Battlefield Area Preservation Society has about $30,000 for purchase of the land and is in the process of a fund drive. The Institute is understood to be unwilling to part with its tract to a private purchaser.

Although the $48,000 is short, spokesmen for Congressman Thompson say that more federal funds may be available after July 1. When the fiscal year ends, money that hasn't been used for various park projects go back into a general fund, and money for Weller purchase might come from that source.

Also on July 1, the Township's new zoning regulation goes into effect, and the Weller Tract will be part of a one acre residential zone where clustering of houses is allowed, assuming the state doesn't decide to buy the land.

As a compromise, the Institute has proposed to sell part of the tract to the state and grant a 99 year lease on 20 acres near the Battlefield site. Houses could then be built on the front part of the land.

CLUSTERING?

Think it Over. Clustering isn't exactly what the new developers of North Hill have in mind for the 71 houses they'd like to see on their property.

But the Princeton Regional Planning Board likes the idea of cluster, at least in part of the 80-plus-acre development, and so the board sent the project back to the developer Carteret Savings & Loan of Newark — after discussion at the June 1 meeting of the board.

North Hill is north of Balfour and east of Cherry Hill. Originally owned by Karl Pettit, the land was in the process of purchase by Frederick Sigler about five or six years ago. Financial difficulties beseiged Mr. Sigler, and Carteret foreclosed on the property. They are not technically the developers, since they'd prefer to get a plan approved and then sell off one and one-half-acre plots to various builders.

Mr. Sigler never planned North Hill as a cluster, because the concept hadn't been adopted for the Township at that time.

Planning board member James A. Floyd asked counsel for Carteret whether the Association would agree to a one-month delay so that cluster planning could be reviewed, and the answer was no. The Association would like to get work started during the summer season; however, spokesmen indicated that if board approval were forthcoming, the Association might be willing to consider cluster development in part of the acreage.

OPEN AIR TO OPEN

With "Showboat." With more terracing, new lighting, refreshments and plenty of parking, the Open Air Theatre on the New Jersey side of Washington Crossing State Park, will open its eighth summer season on Friday, June 25 with "Showboat."

The Jerome Kern classic will also be presented on Saturday, June 26 and July 1, 2 and 3. Productions to follow are:

"Madame Butterfly," July 9 10 and 16 17, will be sung in English by the Princeton Opera Association.

"Street Scene," by Kurt Weill, will be presented July 22 23-24 by the Artists Showcase of Trenton.

"Music Man," the Meredith Willson musical, is on the program for July 30 31 and August 6 7 under the sponsorship of the Delaware Valley Boosters Association.

"Twelfth Night," the Shakespeare comedy, will be given by Shakespeare 70 on August 12 13 14.

"Man of La Mancha," will return for a 1971 engagement after its success last year. The Olde Towne Players will form the cast. It will play August 20 21 and 27 28.

"Iolanthe," by Gilbert and Sullivan, will bring the season to a close September 2 through 6

Tickets may be obtained through the Washington Crossing Association, Box 1776, Titusville, N. J., or calling 737-9821 on performance evenings.

INTIME IS READY

With Four Summer Plays. A summer of theatre and films will be offered to Princeton theatre - goers by Summer Intime, the hot - weather organization that blooms each summer from the University's Theatre Intime. This will be the fourth season for Summer Intime.

Plays will be presented in Murray Theatre on the University campus and the films will be shown in the McCormick Art Museum next to Murray Theatre. Both are air conditioned.

"The Rainmaker," by N. Richard Nash will open the festivities on Thursday, June 24, playing that week - end and again July 8 11. It will star Deborah Savadge as Lizzie, the plain girl who learns to believe in herself, and John Vennema as Starbuck, the rainmaker who promises rain to a western town suffering from drought. Brendak Burke will direct.

"Twelfth Night" will come next, opening Thursday, July 1, and playing through July 4, appearing again July 15-18. The Shakespeare comedy will feature Giulia Pagano, and will be directed by Larry Strichman and Dan Berkowitz.

"Joe Egg," Peter Nichols' dark comedy about a North London Couple with a "human parsnip" for a child, will play July 22-25 and August 5-8. Mr. Strichman will direct.

"Uncle Vanya," in which Chekhov will be treated to emphasize the comic elements in the play, will be offered July 29 through August 1, August 12-15 and will close the season. Geoff Peterson has been assigned to direct.

Some innovations this summer: performances each Sunday at 7:30 p.m.; a new ticket service allowing patrons to reserve seats by telephone as late as 24 hours before any

AUDITIONS SCHEDULED

For "Twelfth Night," fifteen actors, 12 men and three women, are needed for the cast of Shakespeare '70's production of "Twelfth Night." Under the supervision of Gerald E. Guarnieri and John F. Erath, the production will be presented at the Open Air Theatre of Washington Crossing State Park on August 12, 13 and 14.

Mr. Guarnieri has in past years directed or designed productions at The New Jersey Cultural Center, Trenton State College, Washington Crossing State Park, Princeton's Theatre Intime and is presently Chief Designer for Artist's Showcase Theatre and President of The Pennington Players.

Dr Earth is a member of the English Department at Trenton State College. Last summer he served as advisor for Shakespeare 70's "Hamlet" production which was well received by audiences at the park.

Auditions will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, June 14, 15 and 17 in the auditorium of The Trenton Conservatory of Music, 540 East State Street (opposite the Midtown Motel).

PRINCE

Little Big Man (now playing) Comes and Goes for the Sioux. With General Custer played as a pompous, evil man who raves and rants at President Lincoln while the Indians slyly his cavalrymen all around him, the Indians become, somehow, highly sympathetic characters.

In fact, the whole film is a satch, shattering myths about the Old West with a satirical wit and genuine sentiment. Duston Hoffman is the son of pioneers massacred by the Cheyenne. Adopted by the red men, he goes through a cycle of periods," such as the time when he lives with a minister and his wife (Faye Dunaway) who turns prostitute and professions (con artist, gun fighter, alcoholic, recluse and Indian scout), periodically returning to visit the old Indian he reveres as "grand father." His greatest achievement is to be the single white survivor of Custer's Last Stand.

PLAYHOUSE

Bananas (now playing) is chock full of sight gags and one liners, which should please Woody Allen fans. Allen's target is Fidel Castro, just as Charlie Chaplin aimed at Hitler in "The Great Dictator," only Woody comes off less well. The wittiest jokes, in fact, are non-political . . . such as when the bashful hero eases into a Manhattan shop to buy a dirty magazine.

GARDEN

When Eight Bells Toll (now playing) is a British adventure thriller about hijacking gold bouillon ships on the high seas. It's full of suspense, intelligently handled.

Robert Morley heads the excellent cast as the intelligence chief who thinks his friends are above suspicion. Anthony Hopkins is the brash young Naval secret service agent with moments of romance and high adventure. Jack Hawkins is the mysterious Greek ship ping magnate, Corin Redgrave appears as Hopkins' somber-sided partner, and Nathalie Delon is the inevitable lady of mystery.

The ships are traced to the coast of Scotland . . . and the action begins.

Sports Illustrated's Handicap Golf Game

Your handicap against 18 of the greatest golf holes in America — starting with the first at Merion Golf Club and finishing with the 18th at Pebble Beach.

This challenging new game lets you line up each shot, select the right club and then, with your own handicap as a factor, determine exact distance of every tee, fairway and approach shot.

The 18 holes were selected by Sports Illustrated senior editor Dan Jenkins to provide a golfer's "dream course."

AMARI'S NEW SHOP: Joseph Amari, well known in Princeton for his tailored things, has moved his shop to the Princeton Plaza at 356 Nassau Street and added a variety of summer things from various fashion houses. Mrs. Mary Eckroyd is his able assistant.

IT'S NEW To Us

JOSEPH AMARI MOVES

Adds New Dress Lines. On the first of June, Joseph Amari opened the doors of his delightful new shop in the Princeton Plaza, the new shopping cluster at 356 Nassau Street.

Amid the welcoming plants and flowers from friends and neighbors, you'll see a tastefully decorated shop filled with clothes for summer, including some of the most beautiful cottons and silks from India. Many are under $20.

The Indian cottons are "kind of unusual and cool," as Mrs. Mary Eckroyd phrases it modestly, while showing you lovely prints. There are but a few in each size, so that the customers have a fair chance of near-exclusiveness in their choices.

A cotton pants-tunic outfit we liked emphasized a chocolate tone with a soft orange line edging splashed yellow flowers. ($22) Or, in sunny yellow cotton, a pants-tunic with red embroidered lattice at the hems around dime-sized reflectors.

Among the Indian silks, a robin's egg blue with pants so widely flaring from the waist that you think they are a skirt. The tunic top is long sleeved. The sari silk is gently strewn with small embroidered flowers - just every here and there.

Diamonds embroidered in gold thread form an all over pattern on a gauzy silk organza pants-tunic. The lined outfit features simple, straight lines, with a flair to the sleeves at the wrist. ($103.)

The colors, brilliant as a summer, or tender as spring, are very lovely, and often used dramatically as in the rich blue silk organza pants tunic trimmed only with a wide band of glorious, hand embroidery in pure gold thread from the collarless neck to the tunic hem.

Among the American cotton dresses cut in cool, washable styles there's a white whipcord weave with a multi-colored print judiciously spaced against the white background. Sleeveless, it has a small collar. ($15.)

Another is a short-sleeved shirtwaist dress in yellow and white print. And, in contrast, a white-stitched Navy dress, with buttons down the front.

There are few of Joseph Amari's own designs on view because clothes for cooler days are his forte. But we did see an attractive, belted pants-suit in washable polyester. The color is an orange red, and the outfit is topped off with a pure silk blouse of orange-red, white and blue.

Amari has also added a line of Talbot knits in polyester, no-trouble packables all of them. The pieces of each garment are knitted separately and then stitched together. Prices are about $38. Among them, navy pants, topped with a long tunic featuring horizontal stripes of navy blue and pale blue, each edged with a narrow line of orange. The weave has the boucle look to it.

Another Talbot knit idea is the tunic-sweater - wear it now with slacks or over a brief bathing suit. The designs we saw were in pure white with intricate knitting stitches and open-work areas giving texture to the whole thing. The fingertip length version has a soft belt above the patch pockets, and gold buttons. The shorter employs the reverse side of the knitting on the outside in an interesting way. The tops are of Orlon. ($18)

Near the door at Joseph Amari's new shop are various silk prints in short dresses, cool designs, easy lines. ($30-$40) Most of these are half and junior sizes. Beyond them are belts in wide weaves or leathers made in today's young styles. And for the slim ones, leather hot pants with pockets in contrasting color top-stitched on the front, or a green hand stitched on the back.

The shop will soon have some beautiful evening things designed by Mr. Dino, Mrs. Eckroyd told us enthusiastically. These are knits, mainly, in long skirts. She reminded us that the Indian clothes are one of a kind.

Mr. Amari, for the information of his fans, is starting now on his fall collection of suits, dresses and capes. The shop will continue to handle lower-priced fashions as well, in the range up to $80.

Stop by and see the new shop. It's a nice one.

GARDEN HOSES And Cook-out Grills. Urken Supply Co. at 17 Witherspoon Street is spilling out onto the sidewalk, filled as it is to the walls with late spring and summer equipment.

For the gardener who struggles with garden hose, Urken's sidewalk display includes several reels that can be trundled about in an easy way. The water flows through the reel itself, and you turn the reel with a wood-handled crank. The reels hold up to 150-ft of hose, are handy and extremely tidy!

Also outdoors are the Scotts rotary spreaders that come in several widths and depths to suit your requirements. Next to them are some light-weight wheelbarrows for you to use and the kids to play in.

Garden hose being a thing of kinks and varying quality, you may be interested in solving the nuisance for once and for all with the nylon-reinforced hose at Urkens. (Fifty feet for $6.50.) Also the "Supple flex" of reinforced vinyl, which can take sub-zero temperatures, (50 ft lengths are $10.90.)

Indoors at Urkens are some wide grills for cookouts. They come in cast iron oval shapes with long or short legs; in round, black kettles with vented tops and wheels for pushing around out of the wind ($49.95) little 18-inch portables with removable low legs ($5.50), and a great "Char-Broil" that's easily three feet wide and 18 inches deep - giving you a cooking surface big enough for two dozen hamburgers. The latter grill comes with wheels and is about waist high.

Most interesting among the new grills is the electric portable. Made of cast aluminum (finished in black) with a Teflon coated cast aluminum cooking grid, it comes with a deep lid - and the instructions are "always cook with the lid closed." ($59.95)

We're not doing justice to Urken's with the mention of so few things, but the store is so profusely supplied that you must drift in yourself. Ice chests in various sizes and, styles; Thermos's new picnic jugs with insulated mugs ($11.95); handy little redwood tables with metal legs; sand toned bird baths for the lawn; unbreakable dishes, seeds - the list could go on and on!

MOROCCAN JEWELRY At Gallery 100. Mrs. Charles M. Southall is an ambassador for Gallery 100 during her trip to Morocco, and already a small cashe has arrived at the gallery's boutique.

From the great bazaars of Marrakech, famous capital of the ancient Berber empire, have come some distinctive pieces of jewelry for those enchanted by the art form of old and original jewelry.

There are unusual pendants and bracelets, carved wooden necklaces, beautiful amber pieces which can be used as belts, and much more. It's a wonderful array. More is due in the autumn.

What to do until the industrial revolution is recalled by the factory.

Come see the Canes, in Rosemont, New Jersey. They've kept alive the love of handworked woods and simple lines in home furnishings. Most of the things you'll find at Cane Farm are handmade, either right on the farm or in the shops of other artisans. The other pieces, such as our extensive collection of upholstered pieces, are made in factories, true, but they're made by firms who conceal that fact very well. 11-YEAR OLD DROWNS While on Nature Study Trip

Thomas Hills, 11, of 150 West Broad Street, Hopewell, drowned in three feet of water last week while on an overnight ecology study trip with 40 schoolmates.

His body was found shortly after midnight Wednesday in a shallow man made pond on land owned by the Stony Brook Millstone Watersheds Association. Located in Hopewell Township, it is midway between Hopewell and Pennington.

State Police investigation into the question of how an 11 year old boy could drown in three feet of water failed to provide an answer. The pond is deeper in one area, but not near the spot where the body was found. It was about 20 feet from dry land.

Dr. Mathew R. Lapin, Mercer County assistant medical examiner, conducted an autopsy and ruled the death by drowning as "an unexplained accident." There were no injuries on the body, he said.

Seven Chaperones. The ecology trip was one of a series started two years ago for sixth graders in the Hopewell Valley Regional School District. The awesome pupils were accompanied on the outing by four teachers and a total of two high school students.

Young Thomas attended school Tuesday and after the group had arrived at the site of the outing was last seen by a teacher about 4:15 that afternoon. Following a brief survey session of nature study, the children were given an hour of free time, which was closely supervised. Some of the younger boys went wading in the pond, but Thomas was not among them.

It was at supper time that the boy's absence was first noticed. While other students remained in the bunkhouses, a search was started, lasting more than five hours before the body was found.

The Lambertville Ambulance and Rescue Squad had been called for assistance, and it was members of this organization who found the body.

Thomas was the son of Mrs. Robert Dicker of Hopewell. He is also survived by his stepfather, Robert Dicker, his father, Carl A. Hills, of Corning, N.Y.; and four brothers, Danny of Hopewell, Joseph and John of Corning and David of Hornell, N.Y.

Mass of the Angels was celebrated at St. Alphonsus Church, Hopewell, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

NEW CHARGE ADDED To Suit Against Squibb. Sidney S. Souter, of Carson Road, has added a new charge to his suit against E. R. Squibb and Sons and Lawrence Township.

Mr. Souter filed his original suit against Squibb last month, claiming the research complex on Route 206 is 10 feet higher than the zoning code permits. It also argued that Squibb failed to plant a buffer of evergreens and that utility lines were not installed underground, as had been promised.

The amendment to the suit asserts that the pharmaceutical firm changed its building plans between zoning board approval of the project in 1967 and planning board site plan approval in 1969. The modified plans should have been sent back to the zoning board for another approval, Mr. Souter contends.

WANT EXTRA INCOME? A temporary or part-time job may be the answer. Read the Help Wanted ads in this issue of TOWN TOPICS for a varied selections of opportunities open to you.

FIREWORKS IN THE PLANNING STAGE: Members of Princeton Post 76 Marnu Charydzak, senior vice-commander and Henry J. Frank, chairman, plan the Post's annual fireworks display at Palmer Stadium set for July 4. Rain dates been set for July 5 and 10.

Mitchell Spicer, Lawrence attorney, said the zoning board's original approval was for a general schematic plan of the project, and that the modifications approved two years later by the planning board were in line with this plan.

Mr. Souter and representatives of Squibb and Lawrence met with Superior Court Judge Frank J. Kingfield last month for a hearing on motions on the original suit. Mr. Souter's request for an injunction halting construction of the building because of the height violation was denied by Judge Kingfield. However, he noted that Squibb would be building at its own risk, knowing that some judges have ruled that buildings eventually found to be in violation have been ordered to be torn down.

Squibb officials maintain that the maximum height is not being violated, but only appears to be because of excavation around the building. Because the facts are in dispute, Judge Kingfield ruled that the matter will have to go to trial a long road Squibb has been down once before. Another motions hearing will be held this Friday.

Auction Proceeds Use Debated

To the Editor of Town Topics:

TOWN TOPICS carried a press release concerning the annual meeting of the Unitarian Church of Princeton which read in part "From the successful Auction Etcetera proceeds, $40 was allocated to the William Kight ministry to youth and $600 to the church's legal defense fund. The remainder of the auction funds will be presented to the congregation for consideration in September."

As recorded in the minutes of the meeting, it was decided "that $1000 of the auction proceeds be made immediately available for outreach projects ($600 to the church's legal defense fund and $400 to the Bill Kight ministry); $1000 to be paid toward the church's short term loan; $2000 to be held in reserve until September . . ."

Before this decision was reached, some members of the congregation questioned the ethical position of the church using any of the proceeds for internal purposes because pre-auction publicity gave only the information that auction proceeds are used for social outreach and therefore conveyed the impression (by omission of any statements to the contrary) that all proceeds are for social outreach. In fact, for several years now, anywhere from one-half to two-thirds or more have been used for internal purposes.

Why Abandon Valley Road?

To the Editor of Town Topics:

With all due respect to the efforts of the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Long Range Planning for the Princeton Regional Schools, I find myself at a loss to understand why we are being asked to spend $1,000,000 on new construction of school facilities while at the same time "Valley Road School should be made available for non-educational purposes."

What non-educational purposes are available for Valley Road School to serve? Would they be amenable to local zoning ordinances?

Would the Regional School District be adequately compensated for the property? Does anybody want the property who is willing and able to pay a fair price for it?

As a preamble to Recommendation 13, we are introduced to "the concept of the community as a classroom" and told that "there should be little problem in moving students to either the University or Community Park", for use of facilities which would be shared with the University or the Township.

Why then abandon Valley Road School? If new High School construction would put us in a position to abandon Valley Road School, why do we need the new construction?

I hope that as a community we have a sufficient grasp of reality to reject the classically discredited proposition that educational, intellectual or spiritual goals can be achieved by re-arrangement or modernization of physical facilities.

Mailman Will Be Missed.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

There are innumerable nice things about living in Princeton: lots of trees, quiet neighborhood streets, fine music, fine excellent theatre, interesting people and a myriad of others.

One of the pleasant parts of many of my days over the past 13 years has been the arrival of Mr. Walter Margerum at my door to deliver the hundreds of films and packages passing into our hands through the Princeton postal service.

His retirement and his plans to move to California will leave Princeton without a rare

Kindness Appreciated.

To the Editor, Town Topics:

I am grateful to a young man whose name I don't know and I want to thank him for his kindliness in bringing my dear little cat, Chally, home to me.

On June 2, my pet apparently ran in front of the youth's car and died instantly from a head wound. This kind soul knocked on doors at 9 p.m. inquiring as to the cat's owners. He went to his own home and brought back a fluffy towel in which to place Chally before bringing him to me.

For your deep concern and thoughtfulness, I say, Thank you, kind friend".

School Systems Discussed.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Blueprint for Change is an interesting and provocative study, one in which much thought and effort was spent.

As one who has worked for some years as consultant to a nearby city school system whose problems have been similar to Princeton's but much more pronounced, I find the study particularly relevant. I would like to make a few points with regard to some of the problems all school systems are presently experiencing.

Many educators and psychologists today are concerned about the conflicts which large numbers of today's youth are experiencing. We are all keenly aware of the deep strains and divisions within our society and the feelings of helplessness and frustration which many people feel. The areas in which this is most evident are poverty, pollution, war and peace, foreign policy, drugs and race relations.

In no segment of our society are these problems sensed more personally than with our young people. In contrast to those of us well into adulthood and middle age who are concerned primarily with the problems of family, employment and leisure, these young people for reasons both within and without themselves, see the problems of the world as their major concern.

They are "now", "involved" and "committed," in most cases much more than their parents. In no area do we see this more poignantly than in minority groups who have experienced inequities throughout their lives and are only recently rising up to claim their rights as citizens.

I mention these things because I feel that without appreciating them, educators, parents and others wishing to understand our youth will fail in their purpose. Important as academics are, a child or adolescent cannot learn unless he is emotionally prepared to do so. How this comes about is no simple matter.

Central to emotional health is the family constellation. This is no trite comment. The more experienced psychiatrists and psychologists become in working with children and adolescents the more convinced most of them are that early childhood experiences within the home contribute mightily and in many instances crucially to the making of a good student and young citizen.

It is at times difficult for some people to accept the real thrust of this statement. Whether easy or difficult to accept, it stands as true. We see it especially in those minority and impoverished social classes where there has been a profound breakdown in the family group.

IN SUPPORT OF QUAKERS arrested on April 25 for taking part in a meeting for worship and peace vigil in front of the White House, the Peace Committee of Quaker Meeting in Princeton held a similar worship and vigil on Nassau Street at Palmer Square on Wednesday, June 2, the date of the trial of the arrested Quakers. The focus of the worship was "as search for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit that might open us and the nation in 'that life and power which takes away the occasion for all war.'"

It is from these areas that we see all too frequently signs of serious antisocial and delinquent behavior. It is also well recognized that the most common cause of apparent mental retardation is social and economic deprivation.

Certainly the schools cannot be expected to serve as parent surrogates in the truest sense. Nevertheless if we are going to ameliorate the terrible problems of drug addiction, delinquency, and other anti social behavior, and help these children learn, the personnel within the schools must recognize and accept the challenges laid down.

There must be a personal commitment by all who work with our youth, the advantaged and particularly the disadvantaged, that we will work with them in the direction of self development. We can assist them in developing better control of their impulses, in constructing their own code of values and judgments, and in directing their energies to shaping their environment.

This is no easy task and there are no snap answers. There are frequent failures and many discouragements. However, it rests with every person who works within the school system to recognize what the central problems are. It requires educators to be comfortable with themselves, their own feelings and values. Only then can one communicate successfully with others.

Difficult as these problems are, we can work to help solve them. Strides can be taken towards the goal of enabling young people to become healthy in both mind and body.

Misplaced Credit.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

I am writing this in reference to an article in the May 27th edition of your paper. The article I am referring to is the one on the Mercer County High School Championship, where it states that I am a "product of the Princeton Community Tennis Program."

Just to set the record straight, I have never participated in a clinic or taken a lesson from anyone that is even affiliated with that program. Besides playing at P.D.S. (where I go to school) I have never practiced at any of the community courts.

The only time I play on Princeton courts is either in tournaments or team matches. I have been taught all my tennis skills at the Mercer County Indoor Tennis Center in West Trenton.

I am sorry your reporter got it wrong, but credit must be given where credit is due.

Prompt, Courteous Action.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Following is the text of a letter I have written to Frederick M. Putter, Chief of Police in Princeton Township.

I do not imagine that you get many "thank you" letters in your line of work, but I certainly would like to send one.

On Thursday, May 27 while returning from my home on Wendover Drive to my office on Nassau Street, I noticed a truck dumping some old concrete in a wooded area near my house.

I called the Township Police Department and was connected with Officer Offredo. This officer was exceedingly courteous to me and quickly took care of the problem. He found out who had dumped the concrete into the vacant area and has arranged for it to be removed by this same person.

I greatly appreciate the consideration and courtesy shown to me in what is certainly a very minor matter as far as police work is concerned. Nevertheless, it leaves a very pleasant and lasting impression.

Heart Attack Is Fatal to William R. White

William R. White, 174 Dodds Lane, Republican candidate for Township Committee, collapsed Monday night as he sat in the audience during Committee's regular public meeting and was pronounced dead on arrival at Princeton Hospital less than half an hour later, at 8:45 p.m.

Hospital officials said that Mr. White apparently died of a heart attack. He is said to have been under treatment for high blood-pressure. He died on his 50th birthday.

The meeting had been going on for about 20 minutes and Committeemen were listening to a discussion from the audience on the proposed swimming pool fencing ordinance when Mr. White became ill.

Persons sitting next to him carefully laid him on the floor of the meeting room. Township Administrator Joseph R. Nini jumped from his seat and ran to Mr. White's side, beginning artificial respiration.

Police Lt. Michael Lisi ran downstairs to police headquarters for oxygen, which was immediately administered to Mr. White until the First Aid and Rescue Squad arrived with its own oxygen battery.

Rescue Squad members worked over Mr. White for many minutes, and finally carried him out to the waiting ambulance.

Mayor James A. Floyd told the audience that he had conferred with his fellow Committeemen who unanimously agreed that the meeting should be adjourned.

"Whatever your beliefs or faiths, I implore your prayers," the mayor said, as he adjourned the meeting. But Mr. White had apparently already succumbed.

A native of Philadelphia, Mr. White was a graduate of Lafayette College with degrees in economics and business administration. He served in the Air Force during World War II.

He was vice president of operations and a director of the Sales Development Bureau, Inc., a sales consulting and marketing development company formerly based in New York and now located in Trenton.

Before joining the firm, he was with Ventures Research and Development Group, Westvaco Corporation, Union Camp and Scott Paper in a variety of marketing capacities.

During the past year and a half, Mr. White served on the Citizen's Advisory Committee on Long-Range Planning for Princeton's public schools, and was assigned to the group's sub-committee on governance and finance. The group was formally dissolved last month after issuing its "Blueprint for Change."

Mr. White belonged to the American Management Association, the Sales Executives Club of New York, the American Marketing Association, the Hopewell Golf Club and the Princeton Racquet Club.

He is survived by his wife Marjory; a son Stephen G., a student at Lafayette; two daughters, Laura E. and Nancy L., both at home, and a sister, Mrs. Frances Yates who lives in England.

Services are planned for this Thursday at noon in All Saints' Chapel, with arrangements by the Kimble Funeral Home and interment at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made to the William R. White Memorial Fund at All Saints' Chapel. Mr. White served on the All Saints Chapel Committee.

Contributions may also be made to the William R. White Memorial Scholarship Fund, to be administered through the Princeton High School P.T.A. Checks should be made payable to the Princeton Regional Scholarship Foundation, which is tax deductible, with a notation that the gift is in be for Mr. White's fund. Contributions may be mailed to the high school.

TOWN TOPICS goes into every home and place of business in Princeton. By their own figures, no other newspaper does half as well.

In Tribute . . .

He served the school board, as he did so many other agencies in the community, and this tragedy occurred as he was turning to another avenue of local public service as a candidate for Township Committee."

With these words, school board member William Marvel memorialized the late William R. White at the board's agenda meeting Tuesday night. Mr. White has been on the board's Long Range Planning Committee. He collapsed Monday evening as he was attending Township Committee meeting and died soon after.

Mr. Marvel cited Mr. White as "a man of towering integrity, a quality not seen in ample enough supply," and as "a man of great and practical intelligence, always ready to apply this gift to the interests of his fellow men."

Meeting Re-Scheduled

Township Committee has scheduled a special public meeting for next Monday, June 14, at 7 p.m. in Township Hall to take care of necessary items of business held over after Committee was adjourned due to the fatal seizure of William R. White.

Committee will introduce the re-assessment ordinance so that actual re-assessment can begin this summer; will approve the agreement with Princeton Theological Seminary for the cluster subdivision the Seminary plans on Mt. Lucas Road, and will make an appointment to the Township Police Department.

Action on the swimming pool fencing ordinance will be postponed until Committee's regular meeting on Monday, June 21.

Topics Of The Town

JOHNSON WITHDRAWS Will Not Buy Tract. J. Seward Johnson has informed Township Committee that he's decided against buying back from the Township the 14-acre land parcel next to Johnson Park School donated to the municipality by his family as Open Space in 1955.

Committeeman John D. Wallace told his colleagues at Monday night's meeting that a May 28 letter from Mr. Johnson's attorney, Garrett Heher, announced that Mr. Johnson was "regretfully" changing his plans about buying the land.

The 14 acres adjoins the Johnson Park School and is used by children there and elsewhere in the school system for nature studies. The Princeton Regional Board of Education told the Township it did not want to part with the wooded acreage. Mr. Johnson would have been, in a sense, a neighbor of the school board's. He planned to combine the land with another 14 acres he owns abutting Rosedale Road, and build a home there.

"Personally, I am sorry," Mr. Wallace said Monday night." The Johnson family have been good neighbors of the Township's."

Mayor James A. Floyd said Committee would have liked a chance to discuss the proposal with Mr. Johnson, who had proposed to buy back the 14 acres at a price based on an appraisal obtained by the Township. In addition, he would have made a cash contribution toward purchase of other Open Space land.

ROSE TO HEAD HOUSING For Township. Jerome G. Rose, 21 Tyson Lane, has been appointed chairman of the Township Citizens' Advisory Council on Housing by Mayor James A. Floyd.

"Recent proposals for new housing in Princeton point up the need for revitalizing the Citizens' Advisory Council on Housing," Mayor Floyd said in announcing the appointment.

The Council is responsible for advising Township Committee on all aspects of housing policy, with special emphasis on low and middle income housing and multi-family housing, and upon rehabilitation and conservation of existing housing.

Mr. Rose is a lawyer, and interim chairman of the department of urban planning and policy development at Livingston College of Rutgers University.

Professor Rose said that he hopes to make the Council a clearing house for information, plans and programs relating to housing in Princeton, inviting representatives from the University, Princeton Community Housing, planning board and housing authority to discuss their plans.

The group will then evaluate these plans in the light of findings made by the Sternlieb report, which was commissioned last year by the Regional Planning Board.

Other Housing Council members are Mrs. Harold Kuhn, Frank Wells, Frank Quinby, Thomas Fulmer, Leonard Newton and Mrs. Dannie Kennedy.

REUNION WEEK MARRED By Purse Thefts. "We get them every year at this time and this year was no exception," commented Chief Peter J. McCrohan, as he ticked off the number of purse thefts from dormitories, eating clubs and parked cars during reunion weekend.

In a half-dozen such thefts, the victims lost from between $3 and $25. But there was one big loser.

Frederick Houde of Indianapolis told police that someone threw a rock through a front door window to get inside his car parked on College Road. Taken, he said, was his wife's purse containg $350.

Cag Top Slashed. Clifford Taft Jr. of Skillman reported Monday morning that the convertible top of his car had been cut while it was parked in the Witherspoon Street yard. He lost six cartridge tapes valued at $6 apiece.

Early in the week, Patricia Lockheed, a teacher at Princeton High School, reported the theft of her purse between 9 and 12 noon from her gym office. It contained $3, she said.

Pharmacy Entered. Last week, someone entered the front door of the Nassau Pharmacy, 80 Nassau Street, and looted a display case.

According to owner Stephen Stankovits, the intruder broke a plate glass display case and removed an assortment of wristwatches and electric shavers. Nothing else was taken.

There was no sign of forced entry. "We don't know how they got in," said Chief McCrohan.

POLICE CHARGE YOUTH With Bicycle Theft. Arrests for bicycle thefts in Princeton are as infrequent as thefts are frequent — and police report that a couple are stolen every week.

Last week, Borough police made such an arrest.

Pfc. Arthur Jackson and Pfc. James Agins stopped Benjamin Rush IV, 20, of 448 Walnut Lane, while he was riding a blue bicycle at 3 in the morning on Walnut. The bike had allegedly been stolen May 29 from Princeton High School.

Charged with possession of stolen property, Rush was released in $100 bail. He faces a hearing in Borough court on Wednesday.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN On Gulick Farm. Four fire companies responded to a general alarm last week for a fire that burned to the ground a barn located on the 40-acre Gulick Farm at 1082 Princeton Kingston Road.

No one was injured but about 100 prize Bantam chickens owned by Herbourt Stout of 17 Bank Street perished in the blaze. Benjamin Gulick, 6, son of the owner Bertrand L. Gulick Jr., also lost some pet chickens and ducks and four kittens. The fire, which broke out shortly before noon, was discovered by Benjamin.

The greatest suspense story ever told.

It's all about the amazing new BMW Bavaria. 6 cylinders.
2.8 liters. 130 mph. A little over $5,000. Wundercar!

It starts with an entirely new kind of German car, tearing along a country road at speeds up to 130 mph. The kind of road that would jounce any other car a mile high at half the speed.

It's the new BMW Bavaria. The car doesn't just hold the road — it's nailed to it by the most sophisticated suspension system ever built into an automobile. This system is independent all around, with MacPherson struts up front and semi-trailing arms in back. It also features our unique multi-jointed rear axle that can smooth out the worst roads anywhere.

The driving force behind it all is BMW's fantastically efficient short-stroke engine, that's been the subject of more pens of more automotive experts than any power plant since internal combustion began. It's the chef d'oeuvre of those talented BMW engineers of ours.

As a matter of fact, it's a toss-up which one comes first, the BMW engine, or the suspension system that some drivers claim is even faster than the engine itself.

But why don't you decide? Test-drive BMW's new Bavaria. At Autobahn Motors now.

BMWs are available in nine different four or six cylinder models. Suggested retail prices range from $3,0?5 to $8453 P.O.E. New York U.S. Importer Hoffman Motors Corporation, 375 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022. 12541 Beatrice St. Los Angeles California 90066. Dealers Coast to Coast. Advantages: . Mr. Gulick estimated the barn's value at $20,000. He did not know at the time whether he would replace it. The fire did not threaten the main barn, where Mr. Gulick's horses and ponies are kept, nor the main house some 500 feet away.

CHARGE DISMISSED

Against George Kornegay. The charge of interfering with and obstructing a Borough police officer against George Kornegay, 19, 27½ Leigh Avenue, was dismissed last week in Borough court by Judge Theodore T. Tams Jr.

Kornegay was the first to be charged under the Borough's controversial police interference law, following a fight in April between several youths that erupted on Nassau Street. Kornegay allegedly interfered with and refused to co-operate with the police, after they went to his house to question him about the incident.

However, on May 11, Borough Council passed an ordinance repealing the controversial law. Police refused to drop the charge, saying it was up to the Borough prosecutor, Russell W. Annich Jr.

In court last week, Mr. Annich asked Judge Tams to continue the case, arguing that when the alleged offense took place the law was still in effect. Judge Tams demurred. He denied his request and granted the motion by defense attorney Joseph Slonaker that the case be dismissed.

Judge Tams ruled that it would be unfair and unjust to proceed, since the alleged offense was no longer a violation of any law.

Lorraine Braud of Old Greenwich, Conn. was fined $25 for writing a false prescription to obtain a drug at Thorne's Pharmacy. She pleaded guilty to the charge brought by Det. Anthony Ranfone.

John Delmouzos, 58 Wiggins Street pleaded not guilty to a charge by Bernard Glover, the Borough's zoning officer.

Mr. Glover contended that the defendant had to obtain a building permit when he added wooden supports to insulation he was installing. Originally, Mr. Glover testified that Mr. Delmouzos told him that he was putting up insulation only.

Judge Tams waived a fine but ordered Mr. Delmouzos to pay $10 court costs.

In a traffic case, Mark K. Lane, 19, Pleasant Valley Road, Hopewell Township, was fined $15 for failing to keep right at an intersection. He pleaded guilty.

FOURTEEN ARE FINED

In Borough Court. Fourteen Princeton area residents were fined Monday by Judge Theodore T. Tams Jr. in Borough court.

Fined for speeding were Luisa Alvarez, 30, 661 Prospect Avenue, $30; John K. Hepburn, 22, Campbell Hall, Princeton University, $20; and Katherine L. Steffens, 31, Cherry Hill Road, $17. Four paid fines of $15 each for careless driving: Carl F. Skelton, 29, 12 Green Street; Richard E. Pribyl, 24, 60 Penn Lyle Road, Princeton Junction; Flora D. Maull, 64, 25 Alexander Street; and Dolores A. Jones, 35, Jacobs Creek Road, Titusville.

Terry Peifer, 17, Bolfmar Avenue, Cranbury, paid two fines: $12 for a stop-sign infraction and $10 for an inoperable license plate light.

Paying $10 fines were Toni E. Ferrara, 18, 303 Emmons Drive, throwing debris from a car onto a highway; Philip B. Winder, 20, 86 Castle Howard Court, failure to keep right at an intersection; Walter Daniels, 33, 77 Clay Street, unlicensed driver; Kenneth R. Powers, 28, Route 518, Hopewell, operating a motorcycle without a face shield; and Joanna Hoobolt, 17, 105 Elm Road and Kenneth V. Conover Jr., 20, Bridge Point Road, Belle Mead, both picking up or discharging passengers other than at the curb.

Township Court. In Township Court last week, Judge Burton Peskin fined Dore J. Levy, 18, 102 Russell Road, and Charles D. Coppinger, 26, River Road, Belle Mead, $15 each. Mr. Coppinger was charged with careless driving; Miss Levy with a stop sign violation.

Willie Webb of 49 Birch Avenue was fined $210 for assault. He pleaded not guilty to the charge by the complainant, Alex Rodrigues, who claims Webb stabbed him during a fight at Starr's Inn on Birch Avenue on March 30.

Webb, in turn, filed an assault charge against Rodrigues. The later, who lives at 199 John Street, was fined $30 by Judge Peskin.

CAMPER ENTERED

On Route 206. An Aspen Camper, the type which is mounted on a pick-up truck, was entered and ransacked last week, Township police report.

The camper, owned by Dewitt Boice, 278 Riverside Drive, was standing on property Mr. Boice owns on Route 206 across from Ben's Auto Body Shop. A "For Sale" sign was in the window.

Police said that between noon Saturday and Sunday morning, someone broke a window on the door, reached in and unlocked it. The intruder then ransacked the closets and took eating utensils and food. Ptl. Howard Sweeney investigated.

HITS PARKED CAR

Charged with Drunk Driving. An 18 year-old Borough resident, driving a friend's car, has been charged with drunken driving after he struck a parked car early Sunday morning on Madison Street.

David Seckel, 697 Prospect Avenue, the driver, was taken to Princeton Hospital in a patrol car following the 2 a.m. accident. There, he refused medical treatment for a two inch cut on his arm. A passenger, David Weiner, 18, 25 Carnegie Drive, was treated for contusions of the nose and abrasions of the knee.

From the hospital, Seckel was taken to police headquarters where he submitted to a test from Olden Street. He was charged by Ptl. James Agins with drunken driving, careless driving and driving without a license.

Police said that Seckel rammed the rear of a car, parked in front of 17 Madison, owned by Roberta Nelson, 25, of Edison. Ptl. Agins quoted him as saying he didn't remember seeing any parked car or having an accident.

The parked car, which was pushed forward 18 feet by the impact, and the Seckel car were extensively damaged. Police said there were no skid marks at the scene.

Friday night at 7:45, George G. Blanchard, 63, of Morrisstown crossed over the center line of Prospect Avenue and struck a utility pole some 200 feet from Alden Street. He was taken by security officers of Princeton University to Princeton Hospital where he received 13 sutures for a laceration of his chin.

According to Ptl. Thomas Michaud who investigated the accident, Mr. Blanchard told him he had been drinking all day. Ptl. Michaud, who did not interview the driver until a half hour after the accident, charged him with careless driving.

Car Total Loss. Township police judged a four door sedan driven by Ronald D. Sutherland, 16, 180 Laurel Road, a total loss, after it left Rosedale Road early Sunday morning and struck a tree. Sutherland was treated at Princeton Hospital for a mild concussion and laceration of the scalp and released.

Sutherland, according to Ptl. Robert Nielsen, veered off the road to avoid an unidentified car that was coming toward him. He was unable to steer back on Rosedale, knocked down two guard rail posts and struck a tree.

There were no charges. The mishap took place at 5:30 in the morning near the entrance to Johnson Park School.

MRS. CAULEY TO RETIRE

Taught at St. Paul's. Mrs. Harry E. Cauley, 13 Charlton Street, who has taught at St. Paul's School for the past 17 years and off and on before that, will retire this month.

Active not only as a teacher, Mrs. Cauley has been a member of various parish organizations and is a past president of the school PTA. At present, she is serving as a member of the Borough juvenile board.

An informal reception was held in Mrs. Cauley's honor at the May meeting of the school PTA. She was presented with gifts from her family members, former students and friends.

She and her husband will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary next year. The parents of Mrs. Anne Maguire, Mrs. Mary Klink and Harry Cauley Jr., they have five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

MEETING SCHEDULED

On Montessori Method. Miss Arlene Venturi will discuss a Montessori education at 7:30 Friday at the Hightstown Firehouse. The meeting is the second to be held by the Montessori Association of East Windsor/Hightstown and is open to the public.

Miss Venturi, director of her own school in Vineland, is a graduate of the Montessori Training Center of Ravenhill Academy in Philadelphia. She will explain the purpose and function of the Montessori approach to pre-school education as well as demonstrate some of the materials she uses in her classroom.

The meeting is part of an extended program to instruct parents in the value of a pre-school education for their children, sponsored by the founders of the Montessori School of East Windsor / Hightstown. Board members who will be present at the meeting to answer questions about the new school include: Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Orenbach, Mrs. Bruce Mandel and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yurgel.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

By Belle Mead Rotary. The Rotary Club of Belle Mead awarded three scholarships totalling $900 to college-bound students last week at its weekly meeting at Charlie's Farm Inn in Belle Mead.

Club president William Wellemeyer presented one $300 scholarship to David Barss of County Route 13, a Montgomery High School senior who will enter Utah State University in the fall.

Two from Hillsborough who also received $300 scholarships were Barbara Haug of Beekman Lane and William Chipps of Amwell Road. Miss Haug will enter Bloomsburg College in Penna.; Mr. Chipps will enter VPI.

The drama (and comedy) of teaching, learning, and discovering in a modern university.

Now, for the first time, this stimulating, well illustrated Princeton Quarterly is available to the general public on a paid-subscription basis.

Articles coming in the Fall and subsequent issues include: WHAT'S HAPPENING TO COLLEGE PROFESSORS? In an interview, Richard A. Lester, Dean of the Princeton Faculty, tells how the professor's job has been affected by new developments on college campuses, answering such questions as What keeps a professor working when he knows he can't be fired? * * THE CASE FOR THE IVY LEAGUE APPROACH TO SPORTS by J. L. "Jake" McCandless, Head Coach of Princeton Football. * *

ENGINEERING EDUCATION TODAY — including an interview with the new Dean of Princeton's Engineering School, Robert G. Jahn. * * ROMAN MOSAICS FROM ANTIOCH, 8 pages of pictures and text about fascinating "pavement pictures" — by Frances F. Jones, Curator of Classical Art, the Art Museum. * * The colorful Dean of Princeton's Graduate School, Aaron Lemonick, talks with the editor about his favorite subject: GOOD TEACHING.

In The News

Three Princeton High School seniors have won scholarship awards to Salem College, Salem, West Virginia. Janice L. Rohrbacher, 10 Hightstown Road, Princeton Junction, received an academic scholarship of $1,000 a year, and plans to major in sociology. She is the daughter of Mrs. G. H. Rohrbacher and the late Dr. Rohrbacher.

Diane Sholes, 18 Elm Lane, niece of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Sands, was awarded a leadership scholarship of $400 per year. William T. Skillman, 52 Harriet Drive, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Skillman, also received a leadership scholarship of $400 a year.

Martin Oppenheimer, 25 Harriet Drive, is the editor of "The American Military," an anthology of articles from Traos-action magazine, published last week by Aldine Publishing Co., Chicago. The book consists of eleven articles, including two written specially for this volume by the editor.

They fall into two broad categories: The American military: what it is; and what it does. In the first category there are pieces on the motivation of combat troops, airborne training, the social origins of officers, ROTC, and the economic impact of military spending, plus Mr. Oppenheimer's piece, on the relationship of the university to the "military-industrial complex."

The second section includes articles on the Mylai massacre, on draft resistance, on peace activity, and on problems confronting returning Black veterans. Mr. Oppenheimer's article deals with G.I. protest against the war.

Mr. Oppenheimer, who joined the faculty of Livingston College at Rutgers University last Fall as Associate Professor of Sociology, is formerly chairman of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Lincoln University (Pa.) and is author of "The Urban Guerrilla" and co-author of "A Manual for Direct Action," a book dealing with civil rights protest. He has also taught at Haverford, Bryn Mawr, and Vassar colleges.

Midshipman Robert B. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Cook, 2 Hamilton Ave., has been selected to the Superintendent's List for academic and professional excellence at the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. He is a 1968 graduate of Princeton High School.

Dr. John C. Houbolt, 105 Elm Road, senior vice-president of Aeronautical Research Associates of Princeton, Inc. has been appointed by the Advisory Group for Aerospace Research and Development, North Atlantic Treaty Organization, a United States member of the Structures and Materials Panel of AGARD, effective last month. Appointments to AGARD panels are for a period of three years.

Janice L. Rohrbacher

William T. Skillman

Diane Sholes

James A. Morgan of Princeton, has been awarded a Benner Prize for excellence in first year Greek at Phillips Academy, where he is a junior. The prize carries a stipend of $25.

Dr. Charles F. Westoff and Leslie Aldridge Westoff of Cherry Valley Road have just published "From Now to Zero," a study of fertility, contraception and abortion in America. Brought out this week by Little, Brown and Co., the book combines the journalistic talents of Mrs. Westoff and the demographic expertise of Dr. Westoff to produce a book on population for the general public as well as college students.

Dr. Westoff is professor of sociology at Princeton University and associate director of the University's Office of Population Research. Formerly chairman of the Department of Sociology, he is now executive director of the Commission on Population Growth and the American Future recently created by Congress. He is the author of five other books.

Mrs. Westoff is a professional writer whose articles have appeared in McCall's, Esquire, New York Magazine and others.

Miss Ellen C. Stone, 15 Aiken Avenue, has been selected as an Outstanding Junior Woman by the University of Cincinnati. She will participate in the traditional Ivy Chain at the 1971 Commencement. Miss Stone, a graduate of Villa Victoria Academy, is majoring in Elementary Education with a minor in Music.

Archibald S. Alexander, Jr., of 61 Westcott Road has been elected president of the Board of Managers of the State Prison System for the coming year.

The Prison Board is in charge of the major state institutions where adult male offenders are held. Board members, who serve without pay, are appointed by the State Board of Control of Institutions and Agencies with the de facto consent of the Governor.

Mr. Alexander, a Newark attorney, is also a member of the Governor's State Tax Policy Committee and the Family Court Study Commission. He is also a member of the Morrow Association on Correction and of the Board of Directors of the Central New Jersey Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

395 Years of Service from 13 Retiring University Faculty

Thirteen members of the Princeton University faculty, whose combined careers total almost 400 years, will retire this June.

They represent eight departments, the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs and the School of Engineering. The list is headed by Dr. Eugene P. Wigner, 1963 Nobel prize winner in Physics.

Others are: George E. Duckworth, Professor of Latin; James L. Green, Associate Professor of Civil Engineering; Hollis D. Hedberg, Professor of Geology, Glenn L. Jepsen, Professor of Vertebrate Paleontology; Maurice Kelley, Professor of English; Clifford P. Kittredge, Associate Professor of Mechanical Engineering; William W. Lockwood, Professor of Politics and International Affairs, Fritz Machlup, Professor of Economics and International Affairs, Eric M. Rogers Professor of Physics; Alfred E. Sorenson, Associate Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Frederick F. Stephan, Professor of Social Statistics and E. Glen Wever, Professor of Psychology.

Three on the list — Professors Green, Kittredge and Lockwood — have chosen "early retirement," as opposed to retirement at the required age of 68.

A native of Budapest educated in Berlin, Professor Wigner, 68, joined the department of physics in 1930. He shared the 1963 Nobel Prize for adding to man's knowledge of the structure of the atomic nucleus. A colleague noted after the Nobel award that "Wigner has done almost all of modern physics."

Dr. Wigner has contributed profoundly to such areas of physics as symmetry theory, quantum mechanics, nuclear structure, solid state physics and nuclear reactor design. He was also instrumental in the development of the atomic bomb, and has been a leader in the development of atomic energy for peaceful purposes.

Dr. Wigner came to the United States in 1930, and served part time at Princeton during 1931-37. In 1938 he was named to the Jones Professorship.

George E. Duckworth, 68, classicist, established that Vergil and other classical poets deliberately used the Golden Mean ratio famous in mathematics, arts and architecture to give mathematical symmetry to the structure of their poetry. An authority in Greek and Roman Epic and Drama, he has been a Trustee of the American Academy in Rome.

Colonel James L. Green, 66, USA Ret., Army Corps of Engineers from 1928 to 1955, was appointed associate professor of civil engineering at Princeton in 1957. As chairman of the River and Harbor Program, he has led a graduate program pertaining to ports and harbors, waterfront structures, coastal and marine works and structures for the control and utilization of streams.

Hollis D. Hedberg, 68, an authority on stratigraphy and petroleum exploration, has been a major figure in the petroleum industry for more than 40 years. Dr. Hedberg was appointed professor of geology at Princeton in 1959. While holding his professorship he has been with the Gulf Oil Corporation, first as vice-president for exploration and in recent years as exploration adviser.

Glenn L. Jepsen, 68, a leading American paleontologist, has specialized in the geology and biology of Early Tertiary times, an era 60 million years ago which saw the emergence of mammals. His extensive field investigations and laboratory research have turned up numerous important fossil and artifact discoveries.

Professor Maurice Kelley, 68, an authority on 17th-century English literature and one of eight scholars editing "The Complete Prose Works of John Milton," has been frequently ranked by undergraduates among Princeton's "most stimulating teachers." In 1951-53, he was the University's acting librarian, and in World War II, he served as Assistant Dean of the College, directing the University's War Service Bureau.

Dr. Clifford P. Kittredge, 64, a specialist in fluid mechanics and hydraulic machinery, was called to the University's School of Engineering and Applied Science in 1946 after he had taught 10 years at the University of Illinois as Assistant professor of theoretical and applied mechanics, and had completed four World War I years in the Division of War Research at Columbia University. For many years he served as consultant to the De Laval Steam Turbine Company.

William W. Lockwood, 65, was born in Shanghai while his father was YMCA Secretary in that city, and he has been described as "one of the best informed Americans in the field of Far Eastern affairs." He came to Princeton in 1946, after service with the Office of Strategic Services and the State Department, including 23 months of World War I duty with General Chennault's 14th Air Force in China. Particularly concerned with the political and economic development of Modern East Asia, he is a past president of the Association for Asian Studies.

Dr. Fritz Machlup, 68, economist, has been on the University faculty since 1960. A former president of the American Economic Association and the American Association of University Professors, he is the author of 18 major books and more than 100 articles. Dr. Machlup is a native of Austria, and was educated at the University of Vienna. He has been a visiting professor at several American universities and has served as a consultant to U.S. government agencies, Economic Council of Canada.

Professor Eric M. Rogers, 68, is known for his concern with the philosophy and methods of science education. He has prepared lectures and demonstrations in physics for non-scientists and written a textbook, "Physics for the Inquiring Mind."

A native of England, educated at Cambridge, Dr. Rogers is the organizer of the Nuffield Foundation's Physics Teaching Project, an effort to upgrade the teaching of physics in British schools.

Alfred E. Sorenson, 68, a member of the faculty for 45 years, has combined teaching and research in the school of engineering with various administrative assignments and service in the Princeton community. He served for five three-year terms on Borough Council. A member of the American Guild of Organists, he has been organist and choir director of both the Princeton Lutheran Church and the Lutheran Church in Bound Brook, N.J.

Professor Frederick F. Stephan, 68, has been consultant on statistics to various organizations, including the Census and Budget Bureaus, the War Production Board, the Rockefeller Foundation, the National Research Council and Princeton's Office of Population Research. A long-time trustee of the Rand Corporation and formerly editor of the "Public Opinion Quarterly," Professor Stephan has been a member of the President's Committee to Evaluate Employment and Unemployment Statistics, a member of the U.S. Census Advisory Committee and Chief of Statistical Service for the War Manpower Commission.

E. Glen Wever, 68, pioneer in the field of hearing, has directed the University's Auditory Research Laboratories, a complex of nine small buildings on the James Forrestal Campus, since 1961.

Dr. Wever is the co-discoverer of the ear's electrical potential, known as the Wever-Bray phenomenon, which he has used with various electronic measuring techniques to study the hearing process of all kinds of animals.

PORTRAIT PRESENTED

Of Dean Joseph Elgin. An oil portrait of Dr. Joseph C. Elgin, retiring Dean of the Princeton University School of Engineering and Applied Science was unveiled Saturday morning in the Convocation Lounge of the Engineering Quadrangle.

The portrait, painted by artist Peter G. Cook '37, a resident of Kingston, has been given to the University by members of the Princeton Engineering Association, an organization of more than 2,000 alumni of the School of Engineering and Applied Science. President Robert F. Goheen accepted the portrait on behalf of the University.

Dean Elgin, a member of Princeton's Department of Chemical Engineering since obtaining his Ph.D. here in 1929, has been Dean of the School of Engineering and Applied Science since 1954. He has been nationally honored for his leadership in engineering education as well as for his research accomplishments as a chemical engineer.

During his tenure as Dean, the number of faculty in the Engineering School has increased from 57 to 96; the nuber of graduate students has more than doubled, to a present 241; the annual number of Ph.D. recipients in engineering has increased from five in 1954 to over 50 presently; the dollar volume of sponsored research has increased more than three times, to the present, annual $3.8-million level; the entire undergraduate program has been revised; and the research, teaching and office facilities have been greatly expanded since the completion in 1962 of the $8-million Engineering Quadrangle.

"PREVIEW:" Dr. Joseph C. Elgin and Peter G. Cook with the portrait which Mr. Cook painted of him. Dr. Elgin is retiring as Dean of the School of Engineering and Applied Science at Princeton.

SUMMER TERM PLANNED

At Studio on Canal. Hughie Lee-Smith, former painting instructor at the Studio on the Canal, who for the past two years has been "artist - in - residence" at Howard University in Washington, D.C., joins the studio as guest artist for July and August.

He will conduct an evening adult session in figure and landscape instruction. Mr. Smith will live at the studio in preparation for a one-man show to be held in a Detroit gallery in the early fall.

The summer schedule of art workshops for children and adults begins June 20 and continues for ten weeks. All children, ages 10 and over may join the creative painting workshops which will be held in the morning, outdoor weather permitting.

Featured for the summer is a "daylight special" for adults, to be held at supper-time for figure with landscape background. Other adult sessions to be held are a morning outdoor tour of Princeton scenes, as well as a sketch and painting evening workshop.

The instruction is basic and directed to the needs of the student. Students may work in the media of their choice and may register for four, six or ten-weeks terms or for single sessions. Bulletins are available with information pertaining to the workshops.

ART SHOW TO OPEN

Thursday at Noon. More than thirty area artists will exhibit oils, watercolors, graphics, sculpture and mixed media at the fifth annual Art Show sponsored by the Hightstown-East Windsor Jaycee-ettes.

The show will be held at the McGraw - Hill Bookstore, Princeton - Hightstown Road (Route 571). The public is invited to attend on Thursday from 12 noon to 8 p.m. Friday, 9 to 5, and Saturday, 10 to 2.

A judging by Dagmar Tribble of Princeton and Stefan Martin of Roosevelt is planned for Thursday afternoon. On Saturday, Mrs. Adele Wolfe of Trenton will be doing pastel and charcoal portrait sketches in front of the bookstore.

Many of the works displayed will be for sale. All proceeds will go to charities in the area.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

By Conservation Coalition

Because of the drain on manpower caused by summer vacations, the Conservation Coalition of Princeton is seeking new volunteers to help at its Saturday recycling collections.

The next collection is June 19, and others will take place on July 24 and August 21. The new hours are: 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. in the Faculty Road parking lot. Volunteers are needed during these hours and also afterwards to help get the material into the trucks.

Those who are willing to help are urged to contact the Coalition before the collection date, so that the organizers will know how many workers will participate. Adults as well as students are needed.

The volunteers are being coordinated by Mrs. Sally Groden, Red Cross Youth Director, days 924 2491, evenings and weekends 924 9057.

Each month the Saturday collection has involved more and more families, and May's broke all previous records. The Coalition believes that June's collection will be even greater.

FOUR ACTIVITIES SET

By Public Library. The Children's Department of the Public Library has planned four series of activities for the summer.

John Counts, librarian from Littlebrook School, will tell stories to children, kindergarten age and up on Monday evenings from July 5 through 26. The program length is 45 minutes.

Tuesday afternoons at 1:30 from July 6 to August 10, the Summer Reading Club will be held. Activities for children in grades three and up will include not only suggestions for good summer reading but also guest speakers and special interest films. Registration is required for this one hour program.

Children's films will be shown at 1:30 on Thursday afternoons, July 1 through August 12. All ages are welcome to this 45-minute program, which will include such favorites as "The Red Balloon" and "Peter and the Wolf."

Children 3-1/2 to 5 are eligible for a Friday morning program of pre-school specials, beginning at 10 a.m. and running from July 2 through August 13. Stories, songs and games will be included in the half hour schedule. Registration required.

In addition, two special film programs will be presented. Monday, June 28 at 7 p.m., "Rabbit Hill" will be shown. The story by Robert Lawson as adapted and produced by the NBC Children's Theatre uses a cast of rabbits. All ages are welcome at the one hour program.

A Walt Disney double feature, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," and "The Wind in the Willows," will be presented at 7 p.m., Monday, August 2. The show will last 75 minutes. Tickets are necessary at those programs where advance registration is required.

"EREHWON" EXPANDING

School Seeks New Members. "Erehwon," the free school in Princeton Junction, is expanding its high school classes from 20 to 35 students, and anyone interested in learning more about the school in advance of the fall term is invited to call 452 2509 for additional information.

"Erehwon" — which is "Nowhere" spelled backwards — is completing its first year. In the 1970-71 year, the school had 51 students ranging in age from two and one half, to 18, with a faculty of six.

The staff describes Erehwon as a "center where all types of learning — cognitive, affective, emotional and psychological — take place. Here is a basic belief here that true learning comes from self-motivated interest."

Normal distinctions between student and teacher shift at Erehwon. "All of us are in the midst of trying to develop new types of relationships between ourselves as people, and so all of us teach and all of us learn. Everyone at the school helps the education of everyone else, and education is viewed as a never-ending process."

Following the view of "the world as our school," students at Erehwon have gone on 40 mile hikes along the Appalachian Trail, visited the shore, innumerable museums, stores and other schools. The school, on Bear Brook Road, is a split-level house with an old shed on the property which has been made into a pottery workshop.

Students bake bread, weave belts, make candles and grow gardens. Classes have been held in child psychology, drawing, Western intellectual history, T. S. Eliot, Walt Whitman, women's and men's liberation, black history, Hermann Hesse, nutrition, auto mechanics, ecology, biology, creative writing and chemistry. One pupil commented, "We are an all-day sociology class."

THREE TRUSTEES NAMED

One Is Nicholas Katzenbach. Former high Federal official Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, together with a Pennsylvania corporation president and a Princeton University senior, have been elected to the Princeton Board of Trustees, it was reported Sunday at the annual meeting of the Princeton Alumni Association.

The new trustees, representing three categories of Princeton alumni, will serve four year terms on the University's governing board. They are:

Mr. Katzenbach, 49, former U.S. Attorney General and Undersecretary of State, is now Vice President and General Counsel for the IBM Corporation. A member of the Princeton Class of 1943, he has been elected Regional Alumni Trustee by alumni residing in the New England states and New York.

William J. Young, 42, president of the Lehigh Portland Cement Co. and civic leader in Allentown, Pa. Mr. Young, a member of Princeton's Class of 1949, has been chosen Trustee-at-Large in voting open to Princeton's entire, 40,000 member alumni body.

Eugene Y. Lowe, Jr., 21, a senior from Mount Vernon, N.Y., who has majored in the Department of Religion and been active in numerous campus and community affairs. Mr. Lowe was elected Alumni Trustee by vote of the junior and senior classes and the two most recently-graduated alumni classes, 1969 and 1970.

Mr. Lowe's election brings to four the number of youthful four year members on Princeton's Board of Trustees, and rounds out a plan initiated by the Board in 1969. Mr. Lowe is the second black student a mong the four to have been elected by his peers, joining Brent L. Henry of the Class of 1969 as a member of the board.

Tower Wins Award

Princeton High School's newspaper, The Tower, has won a second prize in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association competition in its first try.

Several issues of The Tower were judged with others in its class, for general excellence in news, sports and feature writing, headlines and typography. About 5,000 high schools from all over the country, separated into classes by pupil enrollments, entered the competition.

Co-editors of The Tower this year were seniors Kathy Strother and Pam Douglas.

Obituaries

Philip D. Wilson, 83, died June 4 at his home at 69 Park side Drive. A member of the Princeton University class of 1909, Mr. Wilson died on the eve of his class's 62nd reunion.

Prior to his retirement in 1961, Mr. Wilson served as a chemist, engineer and geologist for mining firms in South Africa, South America, Europe and the United States. A graduate of the Columbia University School of Mines in 1911, he was vice president of Pardniers Mines Co. of New York from 1934 to 1942. He served on the War Production Board during World War II, was a consulting mining engineer with Lehman Brothers Corp. in New York from 1946 to 1953, and served as a private consultant until his retirement in 1961.

He was an honorary member of A.I.M.E. and a member of the Mineral & Metals Society of America, both in New York; the Society of Economic Geologists, Mining Club of New York; Princeton Club of New York; Nassau Club, Seaside Park Yacht Club, Campus Club of Princeton University, Delta Kappa Epsilon and other fraternal organizations.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Helen R. Wilson; one son, Dr. William D. Wilson of Rhinebeck, N.Y.; three daughters, Miss Virginia Wilson of Florida, Miss Margaret Wilson of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Charles Wyndome of California; one sister, Miss Helen Wilson of New York City, and five grandchildren.

The service was held at the Kimble Funeral Home, the Rev. Jay K. Helms of Princeton United Methodist Church officiating. Interment was in Princeton Cemetery. Memorial gifts may be sent to the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad.

Mrs. Lillian W. Stewart, formerly of 200 Mercer Street, died May 30 at her home in Sedonia, Ariz. She was the wife of John Q. Stewart, retired professor of astronomy at Princeton University.

Mrs. Stewart was a graduate of Miss Fine's School and studied at Vassar and Cornell. She was the daughter of the late Professor John H. West cott of Princeton University.

Also surviving are a son, John W. Stewart, and a sister, Mrs. H. T. Westbrook of Claremont, Calif. Her brother, John H. Westcott Jr., was killed in action in World War I.

Mrs. Katie B. Buggs, 69, of 81 Leigh Avenue, died June 4 in Princeton Hospital. She was the wife of the late Benjamin F. Buggs Sr.

Born on St. Simon's Island, Ga., Mrs. Buggs lived in Princeton for more than 50 years. She served as a deacon of Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church and was a member of the Women's Association. She was a seamstress.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ramona Huff of Princeton; one son, Benjamin F. Huff Jr. of Chapel Oaks, Md.; two grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Pearl Armstrong of St. Simon's Island, Mrs. Birdie L. Watson of Brunswick, Ga., and Mrs. Josephine Porter of Teaneck, and one brother, Edward Follins of St. Simon's Island.

The service was held at Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church. Interment was in Princeton Cemetery under direction of the Hughes Funeral Home. Memorial gifts may be made to the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church Building Fund.

William H. Bruce, 87, of Federal City Road, Pennington, died June 5 in Lawrenceville Nursing Home. He helped build the Panama Canal as a machinist for the Panama Canal Company.

Now retired, he lived in Brant Beach before moving to Pennington two years ago. He was a 50 year member of the DeWitt Clinton Lodge F & AM of Sandwich, Mass. Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite and Abou Saad Shrine Temple in the Canal Zone. He was also a 32nd degree Mason of the Panama Canal Zone Consistory.

Husband of the late Isabella L. Bruce, he is survived by two sons, William H. Bruce Jr. of Pennington and Donald E. Bruce of Cristobal, Canal Zone, two daughters, Mrs. Everett Ballard of Lake Zurich, Ill., and Mrs. Edward Boyce of Carmel, N.Y.; nine grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

A family service was held at the Blackwell Memorial Home, Pennington, with the Rev. Lawrence E. Moore of Pennington United Methodist Church officiating. Interment was private. Memorial gifts may be made to the church.

Clyde F. Brady Sr., 84, died June 4 at his home, 4 Timberlane Drive, Pennington, after a lengthy illness. Before his retirement, he was a textile salesman in New York City.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Mr. Brady lived in Pennington for the past 14 years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Genevive S. Brady; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret B. Mead, with whom he lived; one son, Clyde F. Jr. of Sea Cliff, L.I.; ten grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Lillian G. Smith of Bethesda, Md.

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated in St. James Catholic Church. Pennington Interment was at the convenience of the family. Funeral arrangements were made by the Blackwell Memorial Home. Contributions may be sent to the Pennington First Aid Squad.

J. Robert Muehleck, 67, of 322 South Main Street Pennington, died June 5 in Mercer Hospital after a lengthy illness. He was a retired aircraft inspector for the United States Navy.

Born in New York, Mr. Muehleck lived in the Pennington area during most of his life.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Rebecca Muehleck; one son, Robert E. at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Robert W. Brown of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The service was held at the Wilson Home for Funerals, Pennington Circle, with the Rev. Edward Sykes of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church officiating. Interment was in Pennington Cemetery.

Carl T. Erickson, 59, of R.D. 1, Hopewell, died June 5 in Helene Fuld Hospital. He was a machinist with DeLaval Turbine Inc.

A native of Hopewell Township, Mr. Erickson was a member of Hopewell Lodge 153 F and AM, the Trenton Forest of Tall Cedars of Lebanon and of the Hopewell Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary B. Erickson; one son, Carl of Hamilton Square; two daughters, Miss Bernice M. and Miss Carol A. Erickson, both at home; two grandchildren, and a step-brother, Gordon Erickson of Changewater.

The service was held in the Cromwell Memorial Home, Hopewell, with the Rev. Robert Beringer of Hopewell Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment was in Ewing Church Cemetery.

CONROY TO RETIRE

As Princeton Tennis Coach. John J. Conroy, whose Princeton teams have won almost 90% of their matches and finished in first place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Tennis Association 15 times in the past 30 years, will retire as coach of the sport on June 30. Director of Athletics R. Kenneth Fairman, in accepting Conroy's decision, announced that William M. Summers, head coach of squash and freshman tennis coach, will step into the varsity role.

Conroy, who coached Princeton squash from 1940 through 1969, will continue in the post of associate director of athletics with primary responsibility for freshman physical education, women's physical education, recreational programs and the University's extensive intramural athletic activities in which some 65 percent of the student body participate.

Coming to Princeton in 1940 as head coach of squash and assistant coach of tennis, Conroy succeeded Mercer Beasley in 1942 as varsity tennis coach. His first Tiger squash aggregation won the Intercollegiate Invitation Tournament and his initial tennis squad captured the title in the Eastern Association.

Conroy left Princeton in late 1942 to serve for three years with the U.S. Navy. He spent some 16 months on convoy duty with the Armed Guard in both the Atlantic and Pacific areas and was discharged in 1945 with the rank of lieutenant commander.

Won 52 Straight Matches. As Princeton's squad coach, he saw his teams compile a record of 184 victories against 93 defeats, including five intercollegiate titles. Conroy's tennis teams reached the heights of excellence consistently, posting an overall mark of 270 victories and but 38 defeats for a winning percentage of .877. They won eleven outright league championships and shared in four others.

Along the way, his Tiger netmen, between 1960 and 1965, put together a 52-match winning streak which stands as the top skein of its kind in Princeton varsity athletics. Another high point was the 1965 snapping of the University of Miami's 137 match victory string.

A past president of the Princeton Recreation Commission and the guiding force behind the brough's erection of its first public courts, Conroy is a co-director with Mrs. Eve Kraft of the nationally-acclaimed Princeton Community Tennis Program, which includes more than 1500 students and 100 instructors each year.

Summers, who joined Princeton's staff in 1962 as freshman coach of both squash and tennis, has been something of a success story in his own right. His nine yearling tennis teams have compiled a record of 84 triumphs and but five setbacks, turning in six unbeaten seasons.

Before becoming head coach of squash two years ago, Summers had guided his freshmen to 49 wins in 58 matches. In two seasons with the varsity, he has seen his charges record thirteen victories and nine defeats. Summers was the originator five years ago of the Central New Jersey Squash League wherein Princeton student and faculty teams compete with units representing the town of Princeton, Trenton, the Trenton YMCA and McGuire Air Force Base.

In making his announcement of Conroy's stepping down and of Summers' appointment, Fairman stressed that, with the Ivy League decision to incorporate freshmen into varsity sports in both squash and tennis, one coach will handle an entire squad which will eventually play both a varsity and a junior varsity schedule. "We are certainly fortunate to be able to follow a man such as John Conroy with a man as well equipped to coach young men as Bill Summers," said Fairman. "Of course, it is an additional source of comfort to us that Mr. Conroy will continue on in his present capacity as associate director of athletics in charge of all aspects of our physical education program for both men and women and our intramural athletic competition."

RHODES, PARKER ENTER

In Meet of Champions. By placing third in the NJSIAA Group 3 championship finals Saturday, Ron Rhodes and Lawrence Parker of the Princeton High School track team qualified to compete in the annual NJSIAA Meet of Champions to be held Saturday at Highland Park.

Only the top three finishers in the Group 1-4 and Parochial Division championships are eligible to compete in the Meet of Champions and thus determine a single state champion for each track event.

Rhodes jumped 21 feet, 4 and 3/4 inches Saturday to earn third spot in the long jump. Parker, all-time point getter for PHS, was some 10 feet behind his best for the year in the javelin but still managed to salvage a third with a toss of 189 feet, five inches.

"It's the first time we've had anybody going to the Meet of Champions in some time," commented PHS coach Larry Ivan. "It's a very select group."

Final Dual Meet Won. The Little Tigers ended their dual meet competition last week

The best idea to come out of Detroit in years.

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, someone once said.

And never before has our modest car been on the receiving end of so much flattery.

What with the Big 3 auto makers coming out with a little 3.

And one even promising not to change designs for five years.

Of course, it wasn't always like this.

Take 1949, for instance.

The only people who liked the Beetle then were the two who bought it.

But being first with an idea also has its advantages.

Nobody, for example, has the experience we have working on a single small car.

We've had the time to test our idea.

And improve it thousands of times. And refine it thousands of times.

Every step the others take, we've been through before.

In fact, it's kind of funny now.

with an 89½ to 30½ victory over Hopewell Valley. The victory raised their dual meet record to 4-8 over last year's 1-11.

Parker was a triple winner, capturing the 100, 220 and javelin. The 15 points, coupled with the three he earned for Saturday's third in the javelin increased his point total to 123 for the season. Ivan announced that if a double check proves the 123 to be accurate, Parker would be the top point-getter in a single season for the Little Tigers. Paul Mazzarella who consistently won both the low and high hurdles for PHS, two years ago was the previous high performer with 122½.

Parker just missed edging Mazzarella last year as a junior when he scored 121 points. "That's a lot of points in two years," said Ivan.

In other events against Hopewell, Roland Smith won the mile in 4:41—his best ever, clipping some nine seconds off his previous best effort—and Billy Evers won the 880. Martin Willard, a sophomore, placed second in the mile.

PHS swept the javelin when Scott Ostroff and Richard Guzy finished second and third behind Parker. Lewis Drury won the shot (47-1), Daryl Boone the high jump (5-8) and MIDFIELDER HONORED: Bill Pettit, captain of the Princeton lacrosse team, has been named a co-winner of the Higginbotham Trophy for "outstanding play and distinguished sportsmanship." He has also been named to the second All-Ivy team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Pettit of Ridgeview Road.

Steve Woodside the pole vault (11-6). Tom Greene and Dave Cowan finished second and third in the discus.

This season was a step up for PHS and while Ivan loses some top competitors he has enough coming back to be optimistic about next year. "We don't lose anybody in the shot or discus for the first time . . . we have a good miler (Smith) and two-miler (Tom Snow) coming back . . . so it looks pretty good."

Departing through graduation will be team captain Joe Bolster, Parker, Phil White, Daryl Boone, Richard Jackson, David Froelich, Pete Arbras and Dave Gendron.

PHS 4-1 VICTIM

In Baseball Finale. Playing its final game at Hunterdon Central last week, the Princeton High School baseball team was defeated, 4-1, to end its season with a 5-13 record.

Five victories in 18 tries is not something to crow about but nevertheless it is much improved over last year, when the Little Tigers failed to win a single game. What's more, PHS coach Harry Zoll is already serving notice that he intends to triple that games won record.

Not one to give optimistic predictions — let alone such advanced forecasts — Zoll is basing his forthright stand on a squad from which he loses only one starter and has back two tested pitchers. His only hedge is pitching. "If we can get one more good pitcher, we are capable of going all the way," he said.

Zoll loses his number one backstop, Dave Mansue. But if Zoll is not unduly concerned about Mansue's departure, no one can blame him. Waiting to take over is Bob Zinsmeister, who played one varsity game this year as a freshman, and who promises to be one of the best PHS catchers ever.

Also set to graduate in June are John Schumaker and Lee Langston, two outfielders who were platooned by Zoll. The defense and experience is there for '72. In addition to pitching, the big question mark will be hitting.

Only Don Crosby, who batted .333, was over .300 for PHS this spring. Shortstop George Boccanfuso was next with .288. As a team, the Little Tigers simply were not explosive enought at the plate.

Case in Point. The final game with Hunterdon Central, a solid club with a 15-6 record, is a case in point. In seven innings against the pitching of Kurt Hoge, the PHS attack consisted of singles by Tom Gopsill and Greg Kline.

In the first, when PHS scored its lone run, a timely hit could have had Hoge in trouble. Hoge walked the first three batters he faced but got out of the inning with one run. As the game progressed Hoge (7-2) became increasingly stronger, while the Little Tigers faded.

Hoge also had two of his team's nine hits off Prince

TWELVE HERE QUALIFY

For Junior Olympic Meet. Twelve Princeton boys and girls finished first or second at a district meet last week in Scotch Plains to quality for the state AAU Junior Olympic Track Team finals Saturday at Rutgers University stadium.

Capturing firsts were Billy Haynes and Linda Littel, both in the 50-yard dash; Bob Cooke, baseball throw; and Tony Opperman, standing long jump. Finishing second were Emily Rothrock, 50-yard dash; Barry Turner, running long jump; Martha Grace, high jump; and Mike Bolster, triple jump.

In addition, the girls bantam relay team of Karen Lowe, Cheryl Johnson, Linda Littel and Susan Wojciechowicz placed second and will go to Rutgers.

Denise Bullock and Mary wyer both finished third in their age bracket in the 100-yard dash. Mike Budd and Richard Wilson also took thirds in the high jump.

Three relay teams finished third at Scotch Plains: Kate Campbell, Gywneth Hamel, Francesca Ferrante and Cammy Fulton in the girls junior relay; Chris Price, Andrew Sanford, Pierre Murri, Jonathan Miller in the boys midget relay; and Robert Cooke, Tarek Heba, Buddy Turner and Eric Swartzentruber in the boys bantam relay.

TWO TEAM RACES ON

In Each BSL Division. With six games gone in the season, the race in both divisions of the Business Softball League has apparently narrowed down to just two teams.

In the east, Educational Testing and McGraw-Hill both won again to go 6-0 and 5-1 respectively, with the next closest team, FMC, at 3-3. In the west, Cities Service and RCA Astro are one-two, while RCA A in third place still has a fairly good change of catching them.

ETS spotted FMC a four-run lead in the first inning, but came back later to earn its sixth straight triumph, 10-9. Several players had two hits in ETS's well-balanced attack. Adrian Gesselin, Bill Degler and Bones Gilbert each had a three-base hit. Bill Hymans had two hits and three RBIs for the losers. Both teams were guilty of shoddy fielding, leading to several unearned runs.

McGraw Hill remains just a game back, waiting for a second chance at ETS. Bill Mc Dade threw a five-hit shutout at RCA B, while his mates produced 19 safeties and 16 runs. Bruce Belovin went five for five, and Tom Wood had three hits.

Cities Service showed it had lost nothing after a week's layoff, and beat Hopewell TV 12-9. Bob Lewis had three hits, including a homer and scored four times for the winners. Barry Hibbs and John Rzuczek had five hits and two round trippers between them for Hopewell.

RCA Astros whipped sweet smelling Firmenich 28-3, pounding out 34 hits in the process. Jeff Eldridge and Bob Gotwald each went five for six and Hal Nauman had two hits plus a four bagger.

In other games RCA A led by Al Salkin's five for five bombed Cyanamid 22-4, for its third win. Walt Heinbothem, Bill Procaccini and Don Palorak each had four hits. IDA reached the .500 mark with a 26-9 thumping of Shearer Tree. Charlie Rowe, Jim Anderson, Tom Wunderlich and Joe Frangppani each had four hits. Cal Smith and Kevin Harlan hit home runs for the losers.

Burns Wins Top Award

Dennis J. Burns, captain of the 1970 football team at Princeton, has been awarded the William W. Roper Trophy, highest athletic award conferred by the University.

Given 40 years ago by the widow of the former Princeton coach, the trophy goes each June "to the graduating senior who best combined high scholastic rank, outstanding qualities of sportsmanship and general proficiency in athletics."

A three-year letterman in football, Burns called defensive signals for his last two seasons in Palmer Stadium, serving as an outstanding linebacker. He also played defense in lacrosse, won two letters and the Howard Trophy for showing the greatest improvement in that sport while at Princeton.

LUCAR AND WILL'S WIN

In Babe Roth Baseball. Lucar Hardware and Will's Shell won opening games last week as play got under way in the West Windsor Babe Ruth Baseball League on the Hawk School diamond.

In the league opener, Lucar nipped Harbourt Air Freight, 2-1, in an extra-inning defensive battle. Gary Fowler pitched the entire eight innings for Lucar to pick up the win, while Bob Zinsmeister also went the route for Harbourt.

Wes McClain scored the winning run, getting in position with some good base running. Robbie Duncan kept Harbourt's hopes alive in the sixth with two men on base and none out when he dove in the dirt to catch a liner, then rolled over and tossed to second for a double play.

This way to save money.

Dial calls yourself.

Here is a pointer on how to save money on out-of-state phone calls:

Dial them yourself without the services of an operator.

No matter what other state you call (except faraway Alaska and Hawaii), it always costs less when you dial station calls yourself. Especially on weeknights and weekends when savings are big.

For example. During weekend bargain-calling times*, a 3-minute coast-to-coast station call costs $1.40 plus tax—if you use the services of an operator.

But the same call is reduced even more—way down to 70¢ plus tax—if you dial it yourself without the services of an operator.

So, dial your own station calls without an operator. And save.

In the league's second game, Kevin Mason pitched a no-hitter to lead Will's to a 4-0 victory over the Lions Club. The big hit for the victors was a triple by Richard Hutton. Ted Servis pitched all the way for the Lions, holding his opponents in check until the sixth inning when Will's scored three runs.

MEETING FRIDAY

Of Tennis Leader Corps. All leader corps members, staff and applicants for the Princeton Community Tennis Program will meet Friday at 3 at the Community Park Courts. In the event of rain, the meeting will be held inside the Community Park School gym.

Summer classes in the program start Monday, but late applicants may still make arrangements to enter by calling Mrs. Lewis Kraft, 924-4737. Classes continue throughout August.

PAIR HERE VICTOR

In Clay Court Championship. Gulden Lloyd of Princeton-Lawrenceville Road and Gerald Conti of Lawrenceville won the Bucks County Middle States Clay Court Championship last week at Newton, Pa.

Unseeded, Lloyd and Conti engineered a major upset when they defeated the number two ranked team of Harry Hoffman, and Neil Curtis Jr., 6-3, 3-6, 6-2. On their way to the championship, they defeated three top-ranked teams.

REGISTER NOW

For Summer Lacrosse. As in previous summers, the Princeton Recreation Department will sponsor a lacrosse league for high school and college students. League directors will be Hawley Waterman, athletic director at Newark State College and who was formerly at Hun, and Jack Russo of the New Jersey Lacrosse Club and a former Villanova player.

All games will be played Wednesday evenings at Marquand Park, starting at 5:30. The first game is scheduled for June 23. Applications — there is a $3 registration fee — may be obtained from the Recreation Department office in Township Hall.

Players must furnish their own gear. Games will consist of ten-minute quarters, and officials will be instructed to make very strict calls to eliminate rough contact.

Complete information is available from Waterman at 924-0923.

FIREMEN END SEASON

With Awards Banquet. The Tri-County Firemen's League ended its season last week with an awards dinner at the Lawrenceville Firehouse.

The first place team trophy was presented by Nassau Oil Company to Rocky Hill, which defeated Kingston in the roll-off for the league championship. Senator Richard Coffee presented the second-place award to Kingston.

The third place award was given by Nassau Conover Movers to Mercer No. 3, and Princeton Junction received the fourth place award from Prince Chevrolet.

Individual awards went to: William Duvall, high average (176), presented by Schafer's Service Station; Frank Maddalon, high three games, presented by Grover Lumber; William Richardson, high single-game (235), presented by Kings Inn; and Doug Watson Jr., most improved bowler, presented by Cooper & Schafer.

William Whatley received a special award from David Burrough, owner of the Princeton Recreation Lanes on Nassau Street where the league bowls, for contributing most to improve the league.

The league is comprised of firemen from 12 communities in the Princeton area. They have competed against each other for more than 15

Maybe someday all cars will be built like the Citroen.

Maybe someday.
Maybe it depends on you.
When you demand a car, for example, that would ride like a Rolls but costs like a Chevy. One that would take curves like a Maserati but seats a five full passengers. A car that would be in every sense a luxury car—yet burns gas like a tiny Volkswagen (27 MPG).
Maybe you could get that kind of car from Detroit if you demanded it. Or you could buy one right now. It's called a Citroen. Just go to your nearest Citroen dealer and test drive it.

TEAGUES AND IVY FIRST

In Softball League. After the first week of action in the Princeton Recreation Softball League, Teague and Hinds and Ivy Inn were tied for first with 2-0 records. Country Squire, a newcomer to the league, remained the lone undefeated entry in the seven-team league when it won its only start.

Monday night, Teague pitcher Pete Young blanked winless Varsity Sport Shop on six hits en route to a 4-0 victory. Young also aided his own cause with two hits.

George McVaughn led the Teague attack with a 3 for 3 performance, while Sam Procaccini had two hits for the losers. The game was a scoreless tie until the fifth.

In its opener last week, Teague raked Nassau Conover pitcher Tom Brophy for 21 hits and 15 runs to win, 15-6. Ray Cranston, a new face in the Teague lineup, made his debut a successful one by going 3 for-3 at the plate and scoring three runs. Bucky Melvin and Cap Crossland each homered and scored a pair of runs for the victors.

Ivy Inn kept pace when it registered an exciting, 4-3, win Monday over Conte's Bar, the defending league champion. Al by Toto tormented his former teammates, batting 3 for-3 at the plate, scoring first, knocking in the tieing run and then scoring the winning marker.

Bill Bartolino stroked two hits and Rich Volz blasted his second home run of the season for the Ivies. Frank Cawley led the losers with two hits, one run scored and one RBI.

Last week, Ivy opened with a 15-9 win over Varsity Sport. Volz's homer down the right field line capped a four-run fourth inning, while Dave Britton picked on Varsity pitching for three hits in three at bats, and John Cifelli had three hits in four trips to the plate.

For the losers, Floyd Phox had two hits and scored three runs. Jim Pirone batted in three of the nine runs.

Hagadorn Gets Win. Chris Hagadorn pitched the Country Squire to a 3-1 decision over Nassau Conover Motors Monday to help the Squires open the season in fine fashion. He was helped by Jeff Grover and Charles Peters, each of whom had three hits. The three winning runs were all scored in the seventh inning.

Bryce Chase led the Motormen with two hits, one a triple.

Grover's Hustlers were held motionless last week in the opener for both teams by Conte's Dick Fowler. Fowler allowed just three hits in blanking the Hustlers, 11-0.

SEASON UNDER WAY: Hard-hitting outfielder Jerry Perpetua is back in the lineup for Varsity Softball League. Story on league's first week, this page.

The Brothers Cawley, Frank and Wes, combined for five hits and Jack Roberts added two more to pace Conte's at the plate. Gerald Grover, Ed Henderson and Bob McGee had the three hits off Fowler.

PHS NETMEN WIN

Gump 4 Tennis Title. The Princeton High School tennis team which thought it was all finished for the year last week when it was eliminated from the state tournament by Malbarn — wasn't.

It entered the Greater Jersey Group 4 Conference match and won it to raise its overall mark for the season to 16-1. Under the lights at the Mc tuchen Recreation Center Monday night, PHS defeated Union in the final round, 4-1.

The Little Tigers' number one player Michel Glouchevitch, won his match, 6-0, 6-1. "He played very well," commented PHS coach Bill Humes. Danny Thompson and Bill Schmidt also won their singles matches.

In doubles play, Dick Broad and Randy Smith dropped the first set, 2-6, but came on to win the next two and the match, 6-2, 6-1. A new PHS pairing of George Delano and freshman Mike Casserly lost.

In the semi-final round held Saturday at Cedar Ridge, PHS topped Cedar Ridge High, also by a 4-1 score. Michel Glouchevitch and his brother Niki scored single-match victories for PHS, while Thomas and Broad won, 1-6, 7-5, 6-1. Delano, this time pairing with George Varga, won in straight sets, 7-5, 8-6.

Union defeated J.P. Stevens in the semis to gain the final round against Princeton High.

The season was perhaps the longest and one of the best ever for PHS. "I don't recall ever playing that many before," said Humes. "It was a long season."

All his starting players will return next year.

21 BOATS COMPETE

In Carnegie Races. Twenty one boats competed in Sunday's races held by the Carnegie Sailing Club on the lake — the next to last in the spring series.

Walt Gibson took first place among the Sunfish, followed by Bob Holzman and John Hopfield. Capturing first place by a wide margin in the Penguin class was Ed Metcalf, with his son Ebe and Uwe Heine as crew. Dick Jesser was second.

Jim McPherson with his wife Pat as crew edged Hector Poventud for first place among the Sloops.

With a week to go, Metcalf has an unbeatable lead in the Penguins, and Holzman is solidly entrenched in first among the Sunfish skippers. McPherson has a safe lead over Poventud in the Sloops.

PETTIT IS MEDALIST

In Springdale Golf. Karl Pettit, Jr. shot a four-over par 75 Sunday to lead the qualifying field in the annual Springdale Golf Club championship. Seven flights will begin 18 hole match play this weekend.

Four other members had 77s — Kester Pierson, Bill Quackenbush, Moore Gates and Maury Mather. John Sienkiewicz, the defending titleist, followed with a 78.

Saturday's pairing in the championship flight, together with the qualifying scores:

Pettit (75) vs. Ken Dawes (80), Quackenbush (77) vs. Bill Millman (84), Pierson (77) vs. Ross Shrader (84), Sienkiewicz (78) vs. Tom James (85), Gates (77) vs. George Barrie (83), Jack Mudge (78) vs. Bob McCarthy, Jr. (84), Mather (77) vs. Roland Smith (84) and Jack Sweeney (80) vs. Harry Sayen (85).

Second Flight: Woodrow Wirsig vs. Joe Masick, Jim Litvack vs. Dean Chace, Jack Houghton vs. Oliver Houghton, Art Morgan vs. Stuart Quackenbush.

Third Flight: Charlie Hurford vs. Pete Denning, Charlie Foster vs. Don Schworer, Danforth Hall vs. Bob Shillaber, Don Bordlemay vs. Slover Hollister.

Fourth Flight: Bob McHugh vs. Bob McCarthy, Gene Dix vs. Ralph Allaire, Edwin Shaw vs. Fred Gallagher, Lyle Fitch vs. Nelson Case.

Fifth Flight: Bob Cronin vs. Charlie Coppinger, Bill Pearce vs. Dick Thompson, Barry Foster vs. Ed Johnson, John Hoff, bye.

Sixth Flight: Jim Turgeon vs. Doug Walmsley, Harold Crane vs. Jim Schwartz, Mike Shillaber vs. Elon Foster, Jr., Sam Stewart, bye.

Seventh Flight: Dick Schoch vs. John Miller, Ralph Sharp vs. Ted Tams, Phil Shays vs. Alan Poole, Franklin Dick, bye.

Women's Golf Held. Kate Litvack won the Betty Whelan Tournament at Springdale with an 87-88 for a 36-hole gross of 175. Numenie Warga was runner-up.

Mrs. Whelan took the Chairmen's Tournament with a 77-76 — 153 36-hole net. The runner up was Shirley Pearce.

WINNERS NAMED

In Cranbury Golf Tourney. Joanne Bosworth won the low gross honors in the tournament held Tuesday by the Cranbury Women's Group at the Cranbury Country Club. She carded a 50.

Tied for second with 53 each were Joyce Smith and Caroline Schwartz. Helen Cabrera with 16 won the low putts award.

In the Blind Partners' Score, Barbara Miles and Donna Carberry finished first with a net 80. Karen Braker and Ruth Ennis were a stroke behind for second.

Thorne Pharmacy Aids in Drug-Abuse Film

How pharmacists can help the community's drug-abuse problem is the subject of a film starring the staff of Thorne's Pharmacy.

The film was made by Focus Education, Inc., of New York through the American Pharmaceutical Association, and it features a big-city pharmacy in New York City, another pharmacy on Long Island, and a small-town pharmacy — Thorne's.

The finished product will be shown to students in colleges of pharmacy and medical schools and to professional societies, but its is in everyday, laymen's language, according to Everett Campbell, one of Thorne's owners.

Part of the film deals with a pilot study on the use of computers in pharmacy work, a study in which Thorne's is taking part. Since last August, the store here in Princeton has had a computer terminal tied into a master in Clifton, New Jersey.

Perpetual inventory control, automatic ordering and a system of keeping track of family histories are all part of the computer experiment, and it's the family history that plays an important part in drug-abuse control.

How It's Done. "Leapfrogging" of prescriptions for example, is all-too-familiar to today's pharmacist. Mr. Campbell explains. It's like this:

Suppose the woman in the family has a general practitioner, a gynecologist, perhaps an eye-doctor and a dentist. One way or another, she obtains drug prescriptions from each doctor without the knowledge of the others.

Meanwhile, her husband has his own doctor, plus a dental surgeon and maybe an allergist, so he gets a prescription from each of these, and between the husband and wife, the family builds up quite a medicine chest of barbiturates, amphetamines and so on.

The film shows how a computerized system of record-keeping can flag patients like these and possibly even save their lives by curbing the abuse of certain prescription drugs.

For the film — it has no title yet — Mr. Campbell and his staff filled prescriptions and Mr. Campbell was interviewed. Joanne Hawley, graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science and now an intern at Thorne's, starred in the film also. The interviewer was George Griffenhagen of the American Pharmaceutical Association.

ON CAMERA: Everett Campbell, foreground, co-owner of Thorne's Pharmacy, stars in a film about pharmacies and drug abuse, filmed at Thorne's with the American Pharmaceutical Association's cooperatioo. That's Joanne Hawley, interne pharmacist at Thorne's, who is also in the film.

Others on the Thorne staff who were in the film are Austin MacCauley, John Procassini, Stanley Skeba, Jo Ann Kersten, Phyllis Bocanfuso, Lynn Collins, Mary Perone — and a few customers.

TREADWAY IS IN TOWN

Chain Buys Palmer Mohawk Inn. The Treadway Inns Corp., which has made a name for itself for old-time innkeeping hospitality, has purchased the Palmer Mohawk Inn, next to the Prince Theater on Route 1.

John Treadway, son of L. G. Treadway who opened the first Treadway Inn in Massachusetts in 1912, will light a sign Thursday afternoon in a ceremony officially "Treadwayizing" the former Mohawk Inn. A Treadway Inn means special touches for guests (such as its famous lemon soap) and an accent on good food.

Despite the chain's size, Treadway menus are not standardized. Each Inn has its own special regional dishes, but diners can also expect good New England cooking such as lobster pie, clam chowder, Indian pudding — dishes from the past that made the early Treadway kitchens famous.

In the early 1950s, Treadway began branching out from the familiar country inn to resorts and motor inns. Today, the Treadway sign hangs over more than 40 inns and resorts in over 20 states.

In April, 1970, Treadway was purchased by NBO Industries of Patterson from Restaurant Associates, Inc. In addition to Mohawk and Treadway Inns, NBO operates and manages 17 bowling centers in 11 states and also owns the Newark-based firm of J. Lacker, Inc. —one of the largest institutional food distributors in the New York area.

Started at Williams College. The original Treadway Inn was a converted faculty house on the campus of Williams College. It remains a Treadway Inn to this day. One of the most famous Treadway Country Inns is the Publick House in Sturbridge, Mass., founded in 1771 by Colonel Ebenezer Crafts as a coach tavern.

Now in his 80s, founded L. G. Treadway, who still keeps in touch with Treadway's progress, summed up his college career once by saying "I cooked my way through college into a career I've loved."

He had two basic rules. Bedrooms, he said, should always be built around a good dining room, and executives should all have kitchen training. "Good hotelmen," he declares, "start in the kitchen."

GOVERNOR SIGNS BILL

Restricting Liquor Licenses. It will take growing communities longer to award additional liquor store licenses, as a result of a new bill signed into law Monday by Governor William T. Cahill.

Sought by the liquor store lobby, the new law allows only one package store per 7,000 persons in each community. In effect it negates the 1970 census, under which the municipalities of Princeton Township, Ewing, Lawrence, East Windsor and Hopewell Township would have qualified for another store. Under the old law, each community was entitled to one package store for each 4,000 persons.

In 1960, Princeton Township was authorized a second license but never issued it. The demand today for a license in the Township has been less than it was a few years ago.

The situation is the reverse, however, in Hopewell Township where 18 applications had been filed for the awarding of a second license. Among the applicants were Mercer County Assemblyman Karl Weidel and the township's planning board chairman, August Kampfer. Governor Cahill's signing came just three days before the license was to have been issued.

Behind the pressure by the liquor store lobby was the desire to prevent competition for sales and to preserve the high market value of licenses. Some licenses reportedly have been sold for as high as $100,000.

In the Township last year, the Princeton Inn had trouble finding buyers for its license, which it was forced to forego when the University turned the inn into a co-ed dormitory. The license was finally allowed to expire.

Our Treadway lamp is lit.

When we open a new Treadway Inn, we think it's something you'd want to know about. Because for 60 years Treadway Inns have been known as more than just a place to stay. You get all the modern conveniences all right, but you also get the old-fashioned hospitality of a wayside inn that can't be found anywhere else. It's been that way since L.G. Treadway started the first Treadway Inn. And that's the way our Innkeepers manage the Inns today.

Stop by soon and have dinner. We think you'll like us. When the Treadway lamp is lit, the Treadway hospitality glows inside.

TWENTY-TWO GRADUATE From Chapin School. Twenty-two students graduated at the 39th commencement exercises held Wednesday morning at the Chapin School.

The school's highest honor, the Frances Chapin Award, was presented by Headmistress Mrs. Harrison H. Young to Sandra Lamb. The award is for citizenship and high scholastic achievement.

The graduating class included Charles Bennison, Suzanne Burchfield, Kerry Crowley, Stephen Ehret, Jeffrey Fischer, Lawrence Gerring, Robert Hafitz, Walter Hankin, Thomas Janick, Michael Kingsford, Jeffrey Kramer, Sandra Lamb, Jeffrey Lombardo, Keith Loughlin, Andrew MacDonald, David Mazzarella, Michael Newman, Ralph Peters, Lawrence Platt, Kimberly Procaccino, Sandylu Roeder and Gina Tassie.

SCOUT CEREMONY SUNDAY In West Windsor. The West Windsor Plainsboro Neighborhood Association of Girl Scouts will end its season's activities at a Neighborhood Fly-up ceremony on Sunday, from 1:30 to 2:30 at the Little League Field on North Post Road.

Thirteen troops will assemble and after an opening flag ceremony the Flying Up and Bridging will take place. Brownies from Troops 84, 94, 131, 145, and 149 will Fly Up to be in Junior Troos 29, 32, 51, 80 and 106. Juniors who are becoming Cadettes will receive cockades and enter Troops 34 and 130, while Cadettes who will be 10th graders will enter Senior Troop 90.

Seniors of Troop 90 who are graduating have received a certificate and a pin recognizing their years in Girl Scouting. A surprise dinner was given for them by their leaders, Mrs. M. Cross and Mrs. M. McClelland, at the Old Yorke Inn.

The field will be decorated with flowers and streamers, the traditional 10 green candles and three white candles, the former symbolizing the 10 Girl Scout Laws, and the latter the three parts of the Girl Scout Promise. Mrs. Dorothy Beard, acting as mistress of ceremonies, will announce each event; she will also touch briefly upon the highlights of each troop's activities this year.

There will be the formal presentation of pins, wings and cockades, recitation of the Laws and Promise, and interspersed with these, several songs. After the ceremony, Girl Scouts and their families are invited to a picnic on the Little League grounds.

DELEGATE CHOSEN For Jerseys Girls State. The Women's Auxiliary of the Princeton Post 76, American Legion, has chosen Miss Lynn Duryea as its delegate to the Jersey Girls' State June 20-25 at Douglass College. Miss Duryea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Duryea, 20 Jefferson Road.

Miss Jane Vial, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.M. Vial, 35 Woodside Lane, has been chosen as alternate. Both girls are juniors at Princeton High School. All delegates and alternates were honored at the reception given by the Mercer County American Legion Auxiliary last week in Trenton.

SUMMER PROGRAMS SET For All Ages at "Y." YMCA summer programs will hold registration for a week starting Monday, offering a variety of selection from pre-school programs through co-ed high school and adult activities.

The youngest programs include a summer toddlers' session for 3, 4 and 5 year old boys and girls. For boys and girls 5 and 6, a new program incorporating crafts, story hours, trampoline and swim instruction is offered Monday and Wednesday morning from 9 to 11.

At 6 through elementary school, classes will be offered to boys and girls in trampoline at the beginning and intermediate level on Tuesday and Friday at 9:40 a.m. Swim and diving instruction for boys of 6 years through elementary school will be offered twice a week. All these programs will provide opportunity for four-week enrollment in either early or late summer, or a full eight week summer enrollment.

The junior high school age will be offered a Junior Life Saving Class on Saturday at 9. This offers Boys Scouts special opportunity to receive life saving and swim badges at a special scout fee.

Co-ed folk rock guitar instruction will be offered by Caroline Moseley Monday and Thursday from 4 to 5. Junior High boys and girls may also participate in a daily recreational drop-in program directed by George Holmes from 4 to 9.

Junior High boys will also be able to enroll in an outdoor Basketball League. Tennis classes will be available to boys of elementary school age twice each week in the morning.

Judo and Karate. Adult co-ed programs will, in many cases, welcome high school participation. Adult and high school classes offered include Judo on Tuesday and Thursday evening, Karate on Monday and Wednesday evening, Folk Guitar for beginners on Wednesday at 7 and intermediates at 8.

Additional adult male programs include tennis instruction on Tuesday and Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Table Tennis on Monday and Wednesday from 7:30-9:30; Chess Club on Tuesday from 7:30-10. Duplicate Bridge on Tuesday from 8-10 p.m. The Radio Club will continue through the summer for men and high school students in radio work and amateur sending and receiving as well as transmitting on a new TV station recently donated to the Y.

Families and adults also are able to join with the Outing Club program, and in recreational swims offered each evening Monday through Friday from 5:30-9:30 and Saturday afternoon.

In addition, some places are still available in the YMCA's three camps: the Day Camp for boys 6-9, the Ranger Trip Camp for boys 10-15 and the Resident Camp for boys and girls 9-15 years, located at Blairstown.

Registrations will be conducted from 9 to 9 throughout the week with programs scheduled to begin Monday, June 28.

Pastor and Congregation Labored to Help Build Church of Christ

PRINCETON CHURCH OF CHRIST minister Erry Boothe, in the pulpit and at work on the new building, which will have a formal opening from 3 to 4 this Sunday at ceremonies planned on the River Road site near the Millstone.

Along the banks of the Millstone, just beyond the Kingston bridge, is the new building of the Princeton Church of Christ, constructed at an estimated saving of $70,000 through on-site labor by the congregation and its pastor.

The formal opening of the $175,000 church on River Road is set for 3 to 4 this Sunday. When the minister, Erry Boothe, shakes your hand it will feel a little rough because for the past year he has worked with the members as carpenter, brick mason, tile layer, landscaper and construction engineer in charge.

"We were lucky to have members talented and willing to work on everything from the foundation to the finishing touches," Mr. Boothe says.

The new building contains 11 classrooms, an office, workroom, nursery and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 250. At the rear, along the river, is a small park complete with picnic tables and children's playground equipment which is open for public use.

Now 22 Years Old. The Princeton congregation was started with 19 members in October 1949. Its services were held in the YMCA on Nassau Street. Over the years, it has met in numerous places, moving in 1962 to the Shrine Building on River Road and increasing its membership to the present 85. Attendance averages 90 to 115 for Sunday worship services.

Its leaders are Elders Odie Benson of Hightstown and Bill Fogle of Belle Mead, and four deacons. Additional elders and deacons are being selected.

Erry Boothe (the denomination does not use titles in addressing or referring to their ministers) became the first full-time pastor of the church in July 1963, taking over from Noel Kelley. A graduate of Abilene, Texas, Christian College, where he majored in Greek and received an M.A. in Bible, he was previously minister of the Allentown, Pa., Church of Christ for seven years. He also helped construct a church building in Allentown. He is a former minister of the Lovington, N. Mex., Church of Christ.

His wife recently received a pin for performing 500 hours of volunteer work at the Merwick unit of Princeton Hospital.

Foster Children Helped. The Boothes have cared for three foster children, two unwed mothers and have counselled young and old church members and non-church goers.

They have four children: Cherry (Mrs. Barry Hoefecker of Hightstown); Melody (Mrs. David Herbert of Norristown, Pa.), Melissa, a tenth grader, and Noel, who is in the third grade. Melissa, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James A. Mullin Sr., came to live with the Boothes in 1964 after the death of her mother. There's also an 18-month old grandson, Daniel Hofecker.

The Princeton Church of Christ is part of a 2.5 million denomination centered largely in Texas and Tennessee. The New Testament forms the sole authority for its faith and practices. From time to time, the Princeton congregation has sponsored a series of meetings led by evangelists. Although its membership is largely white, it has conducted door-to-door convasses in the John Street-Witherspoon Street area inviting new members. Each summer, its vacation Bible school enrolls over 200 children. The church also sponsors home-study Bible courses, working with individual or small groups.

CHALLENGING PROBLEMS

For Today's Graduates. Four global conditions, any one of which has the potential to end human life on this planet, are among the awesome problems of today, Princeton President Robert F. Goheen said in his annual Baccalaureate address "A Demanding Destiny," on Sunday in University Chapel. In the audience of 2,000 were most of the 785 graduating seniors.

He urged the seniors "to work to find more effective and more far-seeing solutions" to national and international problems.

The four global conditions are these:

"It is . . . quite certain that in your lifetime the world's population will, despite famine, more than double, and that the highest percentage of increase will be in the poorest, least developed countries.

"It is quite certain that the planet's resources, especially of food, will fall far short of the needs of such a population.

"It is quite certain that our environment will become seriously overloaded, raising the possibility of not enough oxygen to breathe and the slow extinction of life on our planet as we know it.

"It is quite certain that major powers can no longer hope to gain, or survive, by hurling vast armies against each other. Instead there is the precarious balance of missiles, the hot line, the button to be pushed by one human finger."

National Problems Cited. National problems are equally pressing, President Goheen continued. Nearer to home, he said, "we see racism (both white and black), urban decay, economic muddle, strained and imperfectly functioning institutions.

"It is painfully paradoxical that these grievious and divisive conditions obtain in a land so richly endowed with natural resources, human talent, and the most extensive set of developed educational opportunities ever known," he added.

Dr. Goheen proposed that the Class of 1971 assume a role of "two interlocking parts" to help solve current problems:

"One, is to put your talents and training to work on the things that need correction and improvement closest around us." He noted the loss of world respect for many American institutions.

Secondly, he urged the seniors to remember in their undertakings that they are members of a world community. "Your greatest service to your own country, and to the world, can be to make common cause to create here the sort of society to which all may aspire —not for its riches or luxuries, . . . not for its might — but for its humane qualities of equal justice, common decency and neighborly concern for the welfare of all."

LECTURES SET

At Princeton Seminary. A four-day seminar on "The Understanding of Jesus Christ in the Scientific World of Today" begins on Monday at Princeton Seminary under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Thomas F. Torrance, professor of Christian Dogmatics at the University of Edinburgh and New College, Scotland.

The seminar will be held at the Center of Continuing Education.

New Testament Scholar Otto A. Piper will speak on "Faith and Ethics" on Friday, June 18, at 10:40 a.m. in the campus center auditorium. His talk is given in conjunction with the Seminary's annual intensive Greek and Hebrew Summer Language course.

Dr. Piper retired in 1962 after 21 years as Manson Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis at Princeton Seminary. He began his teaching career in 1920 at the University of Goettingen. He taught at the University of Muenster from 1930 until the beginning of the Hitler era when he fled to Wales, spending three years on the faculty of the University of Wales.

Ordained to the ministry of the Evangelische Kirche von Sachsen-Weimar in 1918, he became a minister of the United Presbyterian Church, USA. His most recent book is "Christian Ethics."

BULLETIN NOTES

Episcopal Churchwomen of Trinity Church, Rocky Hill will hold a dinner meeting at 6:30 on Monday at the home of Mrs. John Rightmire, Canal Road, Griggstown, as the final meeting until fall. Mrs. Robert Gere has been named president for the coming year. Miss Ada Brashier is vice-president, Mrs. Donald Matthews, secretary and Mrs. Edward Gillen, treasurer.

The Rev. William N. Kight, minister to youth for the Princeton Presbyterian Commission, will lead a special worship service at 10 on Sunday at Christ Congregation, Walnut Lane.

A pie and cake sale will be held on Saturday at the Morning Star Church of God in Christ, 439 Birch Avenue. The women of the church will bake to your order. The number to call is 924-9544 or 924-5478.

A "Moving-up Service" will be held at 10 on Sunday for the Church School members at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The Rev. F. Hugh Lifilon will preach on the topic, "Let Us Celebrate." Church School classes resume in September.

Services on Sunday at First Presbyterian Church are: Worship in the Round, 8:45 a.m. in the conference room; and at 10 a.m. in the sanctuary. The Rev. Dr. Donald M. Meisel's sermon title is "Life Style."

One worship service, at 9:30 a.m. will be held on Sundays through the summer at First Presbyterian Church of Dutch Neck. It will be a family service, with children encouraged to attend with their parents. child care is provided for the very young. This Sunday, at 9:30, the Church School will be honored.

The 18th anniversary of the International Christian University, Tokyo, will be observed this Sunday. An appeal for funds to support the college has been issued locally by Mrs. John M. Larson of 10 Madison Street, a member of the Women's Committee of the Japan University Foundation, New York City.

Founded as an act of reconciliation in 1949 by Christian educators in Japan, the United States and Canada, the college has recently approved construction of an extension to the library to be named in honor of Dr. Ralph N. Sockman.

Imagine having breakfast on a large screened porch overlooking a charming English garden. Sounds great, doesn't it? It is, and so is the house, just right for a family of four and built for easy upkeep with a pattern planned for mixed generation living. The living room with fireplace is for Mother and Dad, while the recreation room with fireplace is just steps aways from the two bedrooms and bath. On an upper level parents and guests can live peacefully with two bedrooms and their own fine bath. When Dad feels like working, he can retire to a good workshop or select from the outdoor tools comfortably stored in the ample double garage and turn to! Entertaining is made easy by a door connecting the porch to the well-equipped kitchen. In short, most everything is easy in this house, which is peacefully located on a quiet dead end street in Lawrenceville village. $59,500

THE PRICE IS RIGHT

A two-story Colonial in a nice residential area of Lawrence Township. First floor has handsome living room, nice big dining room, modern kitchen, powder room plus a family room that adjoins a breezy screened-in porch. An extra panelled room is ideal for a study or hideaway. The second floor has four corner bedrooms and two baths. Partially finished basement for extra play area includes an enchanting antique barber's chair! Two car garage. $47,500

SPACE AND SIMPLICITY

Arrange your rooms for your way of life in this delightful and flexible house in Rocky Hill. Big wide entrance hall opens to family room with sliding doors to rear patio, a separate den with beamed ceiling, raised living room with fireplace, elegant dining room with parquet floor, modern kitchen and enclosed laundry. Four bedrooms, 2½ baths. An ideal family house, in excellent condition and realistically priced at $52,500

SUMMER: THE SWEET SEASON

Here's a way to enjoy yourself at home — no more hot car trips to the shore! Jump in your own pool in a most private and beautifully planted yard. Presently the house has 3 very large bedrooms and 2½ baths, but there is a fourth bedroom potential easily done(plumbing and flooring are in). Living room and dining area open to jalousied porch to catch the cool evening breezes, and all overlook the peaceful park-like setting. A large panelled family room opens to the garden also. The kitchen, with eating area by a pretty bay window, would please any woman — many cabinets, lots of counter space, two separate ovens and, of course, a dishwasher. The two-car garage has wide entrance to the big and dry basement for the man who likes to "putter". Location is great. Children walk easily to Littlebrook school and Nassau St. is only a half block away. Offered at $71,000

Surround yourself with trees, grass and history.

There's plenty of all three on what may be the highest spot between New York and Philadelphia. Certainly it's one of the most historic, if not the most beautiful. ■ Just 15 homes will be custom built from your plans or ours abutting Greenacres Country Club Golf Course. Each will share in a sweep of common land . . . and in views and privacy all but vanished these days. ■ Isn't all this worth $50,000 or more?

OLD COLONIALS HAVE US IN AN ABSOLUTE DITHER THIS WEEK. WE HAVE THREE IDEAL SITUATIONS.

FOR THE GROWING FAMILY WHO WOULD LIKE TO FEEL THEIR OATS IN THE GOOD, CLEAN COUNTRY AIR . . . there's our house dating farther back than 1805! Located on 3½ acres on the Griggstown Road between Princeton and Belle Mead. Presently used as a two family with an income of $3,600 per yr. and taxes of only $1,500! Opening 2 doors makes it a large gracious home or keeping it "as is" makes it ideal for the man who needs "write-offs"! Each side has living room, dining room, mud room, modern kitchen, two baths . . . one side has 4 bedrooms, the other 3. Fully restored in 1962 so mechanically, it's great. Come see it . . . talk to the turkeys, ride the horse . . . collect some fresh eggs . . . taste the raspberries . . . you'll want to move right in. $74,500

A SMALL TOWNHOUSE IN HOPEWELL WITHIN WALKING DISTANCE OF THE HISTORIC HOPEWELL HOUSE, six rooms, two baths, lovely yard, quiet street, recently painted. OPEN HOUSE FOR ALL SUNDAY, JUNE 13th BETWEEN 1:00 and 3.00 p.m. $30,500

A PERFECTLY RESTORED COLONIAL ON A LOVELY HALF ACRE IN KINGSTON, WITHIN WALKING DISTANCE OF THE N.Y. BUS, living room, dining room, family room, and a top-of-the-line Kenmore Kitchen, fully equipped with stove, refrigerator-freezer, dishwasher, disposal, combination washer-dryer. Upstairs: 4 bedrooms and modern bath. $41,500

THAT VERY SPECIAL HOUSE in RIVERSIDE . . . Originally, built longer and wider than others in the area. Later, centrally air-conditioned. The garden has been tended with utmost care. Foyer, living room with fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, family room with new indoor-outdoor carpeting, powder room, large basement. Three bedrooms, two baths. $59,500

THE SMALL HOUSE . . . custom built in the Battlefield Park area, with soft brick facade, and long low lines . . . all set off by nature shrubs and trees, and rich carpet-like lawn. Large living room with fireplace, dining room, wonderful kitchen with breakfast area, two bedrooms, two baths, panelled recreation room with wet bar and powder room. Central air-conditioning. New carpeting. Freshly painted. Lots of expansion. $105,000

WOODED LOTS FOR SALE! A MOST ATTRACTIVE SETTING IN A NEARBY TOWNSHIP JUST OUTSIDE HOPEWELL. Some with a brook and stream . . . please call us for details.

MOVING? . . . Let one of our Inter-City Relocation Brokers in almost any city in the country help you get started. They'll meet you at the airport, get you a room, and find you a house . . . all in one fell swoop!

BEING TRANSFERRED? . . . Want instant money for your house? If you're in a hurry and will take an appraised price, POTERE will buy your house to give you the cash you need for your new location. Call us for details.

Many more fine homes in Princeton & vicinity in a wide price range.
